Bauhaus Weaving Theory T'ai Smith,2014-11-01 The Bauhaus school in Germany has long been understood through the writings of its founding director Walter Gropius and well known artists who taught there such as Wassily Kandinsky and L szl Moholy Nagy Far less recognized are texts by women in the school s weaving workshop In Bauhaus Weaving Theory T ai Smith uncovers new significance in the work the Bauhaus weavers did as writers From colorful expressionist tapestries to the invention of soundproofing and light reflective fabric the workshop s innovative creations influenced a modernist theory of weaving In the first careful examination of the writings of Bauhaus weavers including Anni Albers Gunta St zl and Otti Berger Smith details how these women challenged assumptions about the feminine nature of their craft As they harnessed the vocabulary of other disciplines like painting architecture and photography Smith argues the weavers resisted modernist thinking about distinct media In parsing texts about tapestries and functional textiles the vital role these women played in debates about medium in the twentieth century and a nuanced history of the Bauhaus comes to light Bauhaus Weaving Theory deftly reframes the Bauhaus weaving workshop as central to theoretical inquiry at the school Putting questions of how value and legitimacy are established in the art world into dialogue with the limits of modernism Smith confronts the belief that the crafts are manual and technical but never intellectual arts Surface Design ,2003 Hot House Gregory Wittkopp,2007 Published in conjunction with the exhibition of the same title presented at Cranbrook Art Museum June 17 through October 14 2007 Kay Sekimachi Yoshiko Wada,2003 Sekimachi a Japanese American recently awarded the Gold Medal of the American Crafts Council for consummate craftsmanship delves deep into her oriental heritage to inspire her delicate sculptural works Sculpture ,2001 American Craft ,2005 Kay Lawrence Kay Lawrence,Diana Wood Conroy,2002 Lawrence is principally a tapestry artist Tapestry weaving in Australia is limited to a small group of practitioners many of whom were influenced by the international interest in hand woven textiles and in the crafts generally which burgeoned in Australia during the 1970s Although some weavers in Australia follow the long established historical precedent of adapting paintings by well known artists to the medium Lawrence and others like her design and weave their tapestries themselves She draws paints and takes photographs and it is from this bank of images that she selects what will work on the very different scale of the loom Reinventing Textiles Janis Jefferies,Sue Rowley,1999 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are advised that this resource may contain images transcripts or names of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples now deceased It may also contain historically and culturally sensitive words terms and descriptions Gyöngy Laky Janet Koplos,2003 Gyöngy Laky draws inspiration easily from multiple sources and traditions with seemingly insatiable curiosity that has rewarded her with a full quiver of forms and ideas to investigate The formats she chooses run from the intimacy of hand scale to large outdoor installations and from freestanding letters and words to lacy abstractions across a wall or hillside Conceptually her work references the ingenuity inherent in how human beings structure and restructure their environments She is a master at juxtaposing materials drawn from both natural and industrial processes and at making dissonance work for her Art Textiles of the World Matthew Koumis,2000 Communication Arts ,2003 Dialogue ,1987 Susie Brandt Julie Courtney,Sid Sachs,2004 Part of the Portfolio Collection this volume covers the artwork of Susie Brandt
