Annette Bezor ,2000-01 An examination of the painting of Australian artist Annette Bezor Annette Bezor Annette Bezor,Juliette Peers,Florence Lynch Gallery,2003

Hossein Valamanesh Mary Knights,Ian North,2011 Deceptively simple Valamanesh s work is often made with elemental substances natural materials found objects for example Persian Carpets an old photo of his grandmother or a pair of worn shoes resonating with cultural and personal associations

Angela Valamanesh Cath Kenneally,2009 Angela Valamanesh is one of Australia s most intriguing ceramic artists Her art is aesthetically minimal and cunningly simple allowing us to interpret universal and ever perplexing human animal and organic forms Valamanesh re immerses us in the primeval rawness of form and function and in doing so the artist succeeds in visualising what many of her contemporaries have avoided the symbiosis between art and science

Louise Haselton Gillian Brown,Leigh Robb,Jenna McKenzie,2019-11-02 Louise Haselton offers glimpses of the curious inner lives of everyday and overlooked things From the domestic to the exotic the natural to the made she distinctively intuitively connections between seemingly disparate material vernaculars Haselton believes in the invisible forces that bind and repel the world around us With a witty reverence for the objects and materials she engages with Haselton explores the communicative possibilities of weight balance and form within her predominantly sculptural works Her practice is unexpected unconventional and exemplary of an artist especially attuned to the matters which surround us Louise Haselton Act natural is a compendium of Haselton s works to date including illustrated essays chronicling the inspirations influences and ideas behind her extraordinary practice of the last twenty five years

Mark Kimber Jim Moss,2013-03 This book encapsulates the photographic career to date of Mark Kimber whose track record as an artist has its origins in the early 1980s when only one year after graduating from art school six of his prints were collected by the Art Gallery of South Australia Since that time his photographs have been collected nationally and internationally and his curriculum vitae is evidence of a rich photographic legacy spanning a fascinating time in the history of the medium The essay by Jim Moss that accompanies Mark Kimber s photographs relates episodes from Mark s youth and early adulthood drawing an animated profile of a complex and motivated individual As a photographic artist Kimber is able to reap the fields of his imagination that were sown in the western suburbs of Adelaide demographic aspects of which he has recreated with an uncanny crepuscular precision Other territories and citizens come under Mark s gaze and in more recent work he displays a proclivity for the creation of fictive worlds Jim Moss s essay also sketches in a sense of the critical and technological evolution that has permeated photographic discourse and practice in the years since Mark Kimber first peered through a viewfinder Throughout this period of change a sensibility that has remained constant at the heart of Mark's repertoire is his battle of wits with what has been described as the uncontrollable intrusion of reality that is intrinsic to the photograph The age of the photograph as a discreet object unto itself has passed but in the world of art the photographic image persists as an intriguing and often complex document This book bears witness to an ongoing fascination with photography as a medium of creative expression while simultaneously it celebrates the contribution of Mark Kimber to photographic art

Gerry Wedd Mark Thomson, Gerry Wedd, 2008 When I first came across Mambo I remember looking at the wall of T-shirt designs at the breadth and wit of the drawing there and thought why would they ever use mine In the late 1980s the young surfer and artist Gerry Wedd came to the attention of Mambo Graphics the iconoclastic surf-wear company With his sense of humour his subject matter his encyclopaedic knowledge of surfing culture and his scratch-board style of drawing Wedd found a spiritual home in Mambo and helped build the developing Mambo ethic But there's more to Gerry Wedd than Mambo This latest book in the South Australian Living Artists SALA series showcases the work of a unique artist who works in a wide range of media including ceramics public art jewellery and fabric design In a career spanning three decades Gerry Wedd's works maintain a sardonic wit and thought-provoking charm In Gerry Wedd author Mark Thomson reveals a man whose life and work is a pleasant shambles of activity zigzagging in and out of so many subjects and spaces an artist who makes no apology for not being modernist or post-post or any other sort

Aldo Iacobelli Aldo Iacobelli, John Neylon, 2006 This book provides an overview of Iacobelli's work from around 1984 to 2006 It includes his monumental drawings of the 80s Side One and Paintings In Oils New Thinking Is Rare DP which comments on Australia's refugee politics
