Annual Hop London To Kent:

The Annual Hop Hilary Heffernan, 1996 This fascinating collection of over 200 old photographs illustrates in heart warming detail the traditional working holiday of London EastEnders which was known affectionately as the Annual Hop As a welcome escape from the poor working and living conditions of the city the annual trip to Kent was for many families an important event It was a chance to earn some extra money in the hop gardens but was also a community event to be enjoyed for its opportunity to breathe country air and share open space for a while with friends and neighbours The work was hard especially in the extremes of weather but most of those who went hopping remember those times fondly The early part of the book sets the scene by showing examples of the working and living conditions that were typical of some parts of inner London in the first half of the century The stark contrast between these views and those taken in the fields of Kent in summer illustrates clearly why the Annual Hop was such an attractive prospect The author has collected the stories of Hoppers from London and across Kent and has borrowed photographs from family albums as she travelled The unique collection she has assembled forms a timely record of a traditional way of life that is gone forever This intimate record of the hop picking tradition will appeal to all ex Hoppers and anyone who would like to see and hear more of this once important annual event

Hoptopia Peter A. Kopp, 2016-08-09 The contents of your pint glass have a much richer history than you could have imagined Through the story of the hop Hoptopia connects twenty first century beer drinkers to lands and histories that have been forgotten in an era of industrial food production The craft beer revolution of the late twentieth century is a remarkable global history that converged in the agricultural landscapes of Oregon s Willamette Valley The common hop a plant native to Eurasia arrived to the Pacific Northwest only in the nineteenth century but has thrived within the region s environmental conditions so much that by the first half of the twentieth century the Willamette Valley claimed the title Hop Center of the World Hoptopia integrates an interdisciplinary history of environment culture economy labor and science through the story of the most indispensable ingredient in beer

Workers' Dilemmas Margaret Grieco, 2022-08-24 Originally published in 1996 Workers Dilemmas analyses the management skills of those with least resources the women of the urban poor and finds that there is an abundance of evidence on the high levels of managerial competence within this group It is information which has largely been hidden from history This study of poor women s involvement in the world of work corrects this missing record For over a century 1850 1960s women and children travelled from their urban homes in the East End of London to work in the hop picking fields of Kent and Hampshire The scale of the annual migration and the complexity of neighbourhood and household organization it required to provide this volume of labour have escaped the literature Drawing on a variety of historical records and on oral history this book explores the high level of management and occupational skills possessed by the urban poor in their construction of household survival strategies Above all this book highlights the key entrepreneurial role played by women in this labour market and the importance of the financial support provided by this regular seasonal labour for household survival Workers Dilemmas provides a fresh look at how work patterns family structure and community networks interrelate and in the process challenges accepted ideas in the wider fields of anthropology and the sociology of work

The London Corn Circular ,1928    The Victorians and Edwardians at Work John Hannavy,2011-11-20 A picture can say a thousand words and the images caught on camera during the Victorian and Edwardian periods provide a fascinating insight into the lives of Britons during this time Take a step back between 1840 and 1910 and explore the world of work and working conditions experienced by the Victorians and Edwardians through the rich variety of photographs and vintage postcards in this beautiful album A world we usually see in monochrome or sepia is presented here in vivid colour bringing the Victorian and Edwardian people a little closer to us 128 pages are packed with images of shipyards factories bakeries and life in the forces We see the men and women who made cutlery in Sheffield the women who gutted and packed the herring in the east coast fishing ports and the women who worked the coal screens in Lancashire s many collieries as well as some tongue in cheek Victorian images of domestic life visiting the dentist and many other themes and subjects all of which tell the story of working life 100 to 160 years ago Go on take a look
