

Nursing Research Literature Review

Written by: [Your Name]

I. Introduction

This Nursing Research Literature Review aims to identify key research gaps in the field of nursing. As the healthcare landscape evolves, it's crucial to continuously update our understanding and practices based on new evidence. This review synthesizes current research trends and highlights areas where further investigation is necessary to advance nursing practice and patient outcomes.

II. Methods

To identify research gaps, a systematic review of recent literature was conducted, focusing on studies published from 2050 and beyond. The review process included:

- Search Strategy: Databases such as PubMed, CINAHL, and Cochrane Library were used to search for relevant studies using keywords related to nursing practice, patient care, and healthcare outcomes.
- Inclusion Criteria: Studies published after 2050, peer-reviewed articles, and research relevant to current nursing practices and challenges.
- Exclusion Criteria: Articles not available in English, non-peer-reviewed sources, and studies that do not directly contribute to identifying research gaps.

III. Results

The review of recent literature revealed several key trends and areas where further research is needed:

1. Technology Integration in Nursing Practice

- Current Trends: Increasing use of telehealth, electronic health records (EHRs), and mobile health applications.
- Research Gaps: Need for studies on the long-term impact of technology on patient outcomes, nurse-patient communication, and the effectiveness of new technologies in

Annual Review Of Nursing Research 2003:

Annual Review of Nursing Research, Volume 21, 2003 Joyce J. Fitzpatrick, PhD, MBA, RN, FAAN, 2003-05-28 This 21st volume of the Annual Review synthesizes nursing research to date on child health and illness including family issues. Ages range from pre term babies to adolescents with a focus on chronic illness. A special final chapter reviews the highlights of the past 10 volumes of the Annual Review of Nursing Research to mark the 20th anniversary of the Review. Annual Review of Nursing Research, Volume 28 Annette Debisette, 2011-04-22 Annotation Internationally recognized experts critically examine the full gamut of literature on key topics in nursing practices including nursing theory care delivery nursing education and the professional aspects of nursing. Encyclopedia of Nursing Research Joyce J.

Fitzpatrick, Meredith Wallace (PhD, RN.), 2006 The Encyclopedia of Nursing Research now thoroughly updated in a second edition presents key terms and concepts in nursing research with over 30% of the entries new to this edition. Written by the world's leading authorities in nursing research this comprehensive reference is a one stop resource for everything you need to know about nursing research and its utilization. Extensive cross references help readers find information easily. Nursing researchers and graduate students in nursing are the primary audience for this volume. As with the first edition nurses in all phases of education from basic to doctoral from formal university and college based programs to continuing education offerings within all health systems will find this an important introduction to current nursing research topics. BOOK JACKET

An Evidence-based Approach to the Treatment and Care of the Older Adult with Cancer Diane G. Cope, Anne M. Reb, 2006 Description The book offers a comprehensive overview of the treatment and care of the older adult with cancer. The evidence based practice approach is timely and provides the foundation for nursing practice that is the expected standard of care. The use of the case study at the end of each chapter assists the reader in the synthesis and application of the information. The book addresses every aspect of the care and treatment of not only the cancer patient but also the family. The chapter on complementary therapy is a bonus. Purpose The purpose is to focus on the unique aspects of treatment and care that the older adult with cancer requires. Addressing the older adult with cancer is of paramount importance to not only the health of the individual but of the family community and society. The book meets the author's objectives. Audience This is written for all healthcare providers. The authors have written a book that can be used by gerontology nurses but it is appropriate for the multidisciplinary team that provides care to the older adult with cancer. The authors have the professional background with applicable experience to edit this book. Features This book covers more than the care and treatment of cancer in the older adult. It provides necessary background information that demonstrates the impact of cancer on the older patient and their significant others. The assessment information is useful for both experienced and novice nurses. The use of chapter case studies enables healthcare providers to apply the chapter content. The use of an evidence based practice approach to delivering healthcare is essential. The information allows nurses to use the findings from reviewed research literature in providing the best care for their patients in an efficient manner that also considers patient preferences the risks and the benefits of treatment or lack thereof Assessment This book provides guidance to novice to expert nurses in the treatment and care of the older adult cancer patient using a holistic approach The chapters are well written by authors who are experts in their field The Cochrane Guidelines are considered the gold standard for evaluating research that impacts treatment selection and care of all patients Their use in the reference materials lends credibility to the information that is presented in the book Publisher Annual Review of Nursing Research , Leddy & Pepper's Conceptual Bases of Professional Nursing Lucy J.
