Modernism beyond the Human, 2023-10-09 One of the defining features of modernism lies in its far reaching rethinking of the relation between the human and the non human In the present volume this crucial aspect of modernism s legacy is investigated from an authentically transnational perspective taking an innovative stance on a diverse range of authors from posthumanist classics such as Beckett and Woolf to Valentine de Saint Point Radoje Domanovic and Aldo Palazzeschi among others On the one hand this collection sheds new light on the modernist contribution to posthumanism providing a valuable reference point for future studies on the topic On the other it offers a new take on the transnational dimension of modernism highlighting unexplored convergences between modernist authors from several different national contexts

Zoo Story Thomas French, 2010-07-06 This story told by a master teller of such things does more than take you inside the cages fences and walls of a zoo It takes you inside the human heart and an elephant s and a primate s and on and on Tom French did in this book what he always does He took real life and wrote it down for us with eloquence and feeling and aching detail Rick Bragg Pulitzer Prize winning journalist and bestselling author An insightful and detailed look at the complex life of a zoo and its denizens both animal and human Yann Martel author of Life of Pi and Beatrice and Virgil Welcome to the savage and surprising world of Zoo Story an unprecedented account of the secret life of a zoo and its inhabitants Based on six years of research the book follows a handful of unforgettable characters at Tampa s Lowry Park Zoo an alpha chimp with a weakness for blondes a ferocious tiger who revels in Obsession perfume and a brilliant but tyrannical CEO known as El Diablo Blanco The sweeping narrative takes the reader from the African savannah to the forests of Panama and deep into the inner workings of a place some describe as a sanctuary and others condemn as a prison Zoo Story shows us how these remarkable individuals live how some die and what their experiences reveal about the human desire to both exalt and control nature

Silence, Feminism, Power S. Malhotra, A. Carillo Rowe, Aimee Carillo Rowe, 2013-01-11 An interrogation of the often unexamined assumption that silence is oppressive to consider the multiple possibilities silence enables The volume features diverse feminist reflections on the nuanced relationship between silence and voice to foreground the creative meditative generative and resistive power our silences engender

The Animist Imagination in East Asian Cinema Pao-chen Tang, 2025-10-01 Whispering winds speeding trains wandering balloons and swirling snowflakes these are the living entities that humans find themselves enmeshed with in their ecological co flourishing in contemporary East Asian cinema Pao chen Tang theorizes and analyzes this animist imagination a new mode of filmmaking that delves into both the definition of the cinematic medium and how to live with the nonhuman Moving images are animate beings and the animism of cinema further compels an eye opening vision to examine East Asian history and ecological anxieties of our times The shamanic protagonists of the animist imagination transform the worldly and medial figurations onscreen into thought experiments on human nonhuman relationality modelling for the viewers anti anthropocentric forms of existence and action The book distills this form of agency through a systematic analysis of narrative structures stylistic devices and cultural implications in a stunning demonstration of a world viewed and enacted otherwise Encyclopedia of Animal Behavior: R-Z Marc Bekoff,2004 Entries examine a broad array of different species and behavior patterns using techniques that range from molecular approaches to the study of behavior to analyses of individuals populations species and ecosystems

Vital Signs Gregg Levoy,2014-12-26 Rediscover or discover for the first time the things that make you passionate in life Vital Signs is about what inspires passion and what defeats it How we lose it and how we get it back And ultimately it s about the endless yet endlessly fruitful tug of war between freedom and domestication the wild in us and the tame our natural selves and our conditioned selves Each chapter in Vital Signs will contain a core sample an intimate biography of one of the strategies we employ to gain or regain our passion The book also affirms the importance of courageous inquiry into dispassion where we re numb depressed stuck bored so the reader can recognize and change these tendencies in themselves

not only one of the greatest breakthroughs of modern science but also one of the most controversial. Perhaps more than any other scientific area, evolutionary science has caused us all to question what we are, where we came from, and how we relate to the rest of the universe. Encyclopedia of Evolution contains more than 200 entries that span modern evolutionary science and the history of its development. This comprehensive volume clarifies many common misconceptions about evolution. For example, many people have grown up being told that the fossil record does not demonstrate an evolutionary pattern and that there are many missing links. In fact, most of these missing links have been found, and their modern representatives are often still alive today. The biographical entries represent evolutionary scientists within the United States who have had and continue to have a major impact on the broad outline of evolutionary science. The biographies chosen reflect the viewpoints of scientists working within the United States. Five essays that explore interesting questions resulting from studies in evolutionary science are included as well. The appendix consists of a summary of Charles Darwin's Origin of Species, which is widely considered to be the foundational work of evolutionary science and one of the most important books in human history. The five essays include: How much do genes control human behavior? What are the ghosts of evolution? Can an evolutionary scientist be religious? Why do humans die? Are humans alone in the universe?     Sailing with Noah Jeffrey P. Bonner, 2006-04

The fifteen stories of George Garrett's Empty Bed Blues, his eighth book-length collection, are vintage Garrett, no two alike, with each moving one way and another in new and daring directions. His stories are deeply concerned with the old verities of love and death and filled with the joys and woes of characters who come to life and command our attention. Diversity is the key word for Garrett's short fiction. He works in every known form and invents a few himself. In A Story Goes with It, Garrett fondly remembers an old friend while retelling a story the man once told him. Most of it is probably not accurate, as Garrett is quick to admit, but the mixture of fact with fiction makes for an entertaining read. His stories turn like the sharp curves of a mountain road, abruptly changing from a fond trip down memory lane to a sleazy reporter's quest along the backroads for the ultimate crime story in Pornographers. He tops off his collection with A Short History of the Civil War, a series of poems written by two participants, one a Confederate, the other a Yankee. In the marriage of fact and fiction, of comedy and pathos, and the music of many voices, the stories of Empty Bed Blues reconfirm the judgment of novelist and story writer Richard Bausch, who said in 1998: "There is no writer on the American scene with a more versatile, more eclectic, or more restless talent than George Garrett."     School Library Journal, 2004
