Risk Assessment: Animals in Schools

This template provides examples of possible content for assessing the risks of having animals in schools. It is important that you edit the content to reflect your context as the risks will vary according to the setting and the individual animals. You will also need to determine the risk rating for each hazard and associated risk.

Please note that your setting might have a separate template for risk assessments. If this is the case you should add your content to your school's chosen template.
