Gronbeck-Tedesco,2015-10-20 This book examines the ways in which Cuba s revolutions of 1933 and 1959 became touchstones for border crossing endeavors of radical politics and cultural experimentation over the mid twentieth century It argues that new networks of solidarity building between US and Cuban allies also brought with them perils and pitfalls that could not be separated from the longer history of US empire in Cuba As US and Cuban subjects struggled together towards common aspirations of racial and gender equality fairer distribution of wealth and anti imperialism they created a unique index of cultural work that widens our understanding of the transition between hemispheric modernism and postmodernism Canvassing poetry music journalism photographs and other cultural expressions around themes of revolution this book seeks new understanding of how race gender and nationhood could shift in meaning and materialization when traveling across the Florida Straits

Magazines, Tourism, and Nation-Building in Mexico Claire Lindsay, 2018-11-20 This open access book discusses the relationship between periodicals tourism and nation building in Mexico It enquires into how magazines a staple form of the promotional apparatus of tourism since its inception articulated an imaginative geography of Mexico at a time when that industry became a critical means of economic recovery and political stability after the Revolution Notwithstanding their vogue popularity reach and close affiliations to commerce and state over several decades magazines have not received any sustained critical attention in the scholarship on that period This book aims to redress that oversight It argues that illustrated magazines like Mexican Folkways 1925 1937 and Mexico This Month 1955 1971 offer rich and compelling materials in that regard not only as unique tools for interrogating the ramifications of tourism on the country s reconstruction but as autonomous objects of study that form a vital if complex part of Mexico s visual culture

Shadows, Fire, Snow Patricia Albers, 2002-03-11 An engaging biography of a dedicated artist and political activist who followed her heart and her ideals and burned out early leaving a legacy of unforgettable photographs
