History and Museums Division,1998 Marines in the Spanish-American War, 1895-1899 ,1998 The modem Marine Corps owes its genesis to the Spanish American War when the United States entered the world stage In this the 100th anniversary year of the war with Spain the History and Museums Division decided upon a new publication about the Marine Corps participation in the conflict At first the thought was to write a new history but upon examination of the historical literature of the war we discovered a trove of new writings and some old that deserved further exploitation The upshot is this anthology An Annotated Reading List of United States Marine Corps History Harold A. 2007 Although Marines first advocated shifting resources from al Anbar to southern Afghanistan in early 2007 the George W Bush administration delayed the Marine proposal for fear of losing the gains made as a result of Army General David H Petraeus surge strategy in Iraq By late 2007 the situation in Afghanistan had deteriorated to the point that it inspired Rolling Stone to later publish the story How We Lost the War We Won In recognition of the shifting tides in both Iraq and Afghanistan the Bush administration began to transfer additional resources to Afghanistan in early 2008 The shift prompted senior Marines to again push for a more prominent role in the Afghan campaign even proposing to take over the Afghan mission from the Army
