Quartermaster's Department, 1869 Roll of Honor, 1994 The Year-book of Photography and Photographic News Almanac for ... Henry Baden Pritchard, 1868 Intoxicated Terrey McCormack, 2021 Intoxicated is an uproarious and highly inventive comedy that is provocative sometimes repellent and certainly shocking throughout but a novel filled to the brim with rewarding literary pleasures written by a writer in complete control of the materials to hand It is a novel unlike any other outrageous in the extreme scandalous and seemingly insane at times a borderline abomination even yet hilarious from cover to cover which also makes it compelling and intimate There are many different aspects to intoxicated for the disordered pandemonium takes off when Francine Coy the lavished upon money intoxicated daughter of a wealthy 1960s ex pop star from the fictional band The Wallbeats himself a main character yet one with very worrying disturbing prejudices with repugnant pleasures too wakes at dawn not like her in one of her holiday homes to get her gang under way towards their goal which is a nano injection each giving them she believes and she believes it very firmly a 300 year life span The clashing personalities then gradually deem the ultimate destructive fate of the misplaced venture namely her deranged boyfriend Joel Maize her two mostly benign gay friends Stevie and Bernie and her monstrous father Johnny Coy Things are never as they seem but when a sense of magic realism transfigures the possible in a great magician's house who is a huge black man named Susan up on a dusty remote hill the plot becomes utterly astonishing via spiked sangria with LSD Francine also discovers some disturbing truths about herself but doesn't have the capacity at that point to acknowledge them Instead she crashes down to earth in hot Gran Canaria when her father finally dies on the toilet experiencing what appears to be a nervous breakdown These truths kick in later beginning in London and then to the deep consternation of all in Liverpool
