After the end of the Civil War in 1865, more than four million slaves were set free. There were several efforts to record the remembrances of the former slaves. The Federal Writers Project was one such project by the United States federal government to support writers during the Great Depression by asking them to interview and record the myriad stories and experiences of slavery of former slaves. The resulting collection preserved hundreds of life stories from 17 U.S. states that would otherwise have been lost in the din of modernity and America's eagerness to deliberately forget the blot on its recent past. Contents: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia. THE VOICES FROM THE MARGINS: Authentic Recorded Life Stories by Former Slaves from 17 American States Work Projects Administration, 2017-10-16 Musaicum Books presents to you this carefully created volume.
