Vampires Are Us Adler, Margot,2014-03-01 Vampires Why do we care In these pages you will find what is very simply the most literate imaginative and just plain fascinating answer to that question ever written Whitley Strieber In a culture that does not do death particularly well we are obsessed with mortality Margot Adler writes Vampires let us play with death and the issue of mortality They let us ponder what it would mean to be truly long lived Would the long view allow us to see the world differently imagine social structures differently Would it increase or decrease our reverence for the planet Vampires allow us to ask questions we usually bury As Adler a longtime NPR correspondent and question asker sat vigil at her dying husband s bedside she found herself newly drawn to vampire novels and their explorations of mortality Over the next four years by now she has read more than 270 vampire novels from teen to adult from gothic to modern from detective to comic she began to see just how each era creates the vampires it needs Dracula an Eastern European monster was the perfect vehicle for 19th century England s fear of outsiders and of disease seeping in through its large ports In 1960s America Dark Shadows gave us the morally conflicted vampire struggling against his own predatory nature who still enthralls us today Think Spike and Angel Stefan and Damon Bill and Eric the Cullens Vampires Are Us explores the issues of power politics morality identity and even the fate of the planet that show up in vampire novels today Perhaps Adler suggests our blood is oil perhaps our prey is the planet Perhaps vampires are us
