Brothers In Hope Volume 5 Bridge Judaeo Chri:

Jacob's Younger Brother Karma Ben-Johanan, 2022-01-01 A revealing account of contemporary tensions between Jews and Christians playing out beneath the surface of conciliatory interfaith dialogue A new chapter in Jewish Christian relations opened in the second half of the twentieth century when the Second Vatican Council exonerated Jews from the accusation of deicide and declared that the Jewish people had never been rejected by God In a few carefully phrased statements two millennia of deep hostility were swept into the trash heap of history But old animosities die hard While Catholic and Jewish leaders publicly promoted interfaith dialogue doubts remained behind closed doors Catholic officials and theologians soon found that changing their attitude toward Jews could threaten the foundations of Christian tradition For their part many Jews perceived the new Catholic line as a Church effort to shore up support amid atheist and secular advances Drawing on extensive research in contemporary rabbinical literature Karma Ben Johanan shows that Jewish leaders welcomed the Catholic condemnation of antisemitism but were less enthusiastic about the Church's sudden urge to claim their friendship Catholic theologians hoped Vatican II would turn the page on an embarrassing history hence the assertion that the Church had not reformed but rather had always loved Jews or at least should have Orthodox rabbis in contrast believed they were finally free to say what they thought of Christianity Jacob's Younger Brother pulls back the veil of interfaith dialogue to reveal how Orthodox rabbis and Catholic leaders spoke about each other when outsiders were not in the room There Ben Johanan finds Jews reluctant to accept the latest whims of a Church that had unilaterally dictated the terms of Jewish Christian relations for centuries

Anti-Judaism and Early Christian Identity Miriam S. Taylor, 2022-06-08 Against the scholarly consensus that assumes early Christians were involved in a rivalry for converts with contemporary Jews this book shows that the target of patristic writers was rather a symbolic Judaism and their aim was to define theologically the young church's identity In identifying and categorizing the hypotheses put forward by modern scholars to defend their view of a Jewish Christian conflict this book demonstrates how current theories have generated faulty notions about the perceptions and motivations of ancient Christians and Jews Beyond its relevance to students of the early church this book addresses the broader question of Christian responsibility for modern anti-Semitism It shows how the focus on a supposedly social rivalry obscures the depth and disquieting nature of the connections between early anti-Judaism and Christian identity

From Enemy to Brother John Connelly, 2012-03-19 In 1965 the Second Vatican Council declared that God loves the Jews Yet the Church had taught for centuries that Jews were cursed by God and had mostly kept silent as Jews were slaughtered by Nazis How did an institution whose wisdom is said to be unchanging undertake one of the largest yet most undiscussed ideological swings in modern history
