Women and Power at the French Court, 1483-1563 Susan Broomhall, 2025-10-01 Women and Power at the French Court 1483 1563 explores the ways in which a range of women as consorts regents mistresses factional power players attendants at court or as objects of courtly patronage wielded power in order to advance individual familial and factional agendas at the early sixteenth century French court Spring boarding from the burgeoning scholarship of gender the political and power in early modern Europe the collection provides a perspective from the French court from the reigns of Charles VIII to Henri II a time when the French court was a renowned center of culture and at which women played important roles Cross disciplinary in its perspectives these essays by historians art and literary scholars investigate the dynamic operations of gendered power in political acts recognized status as queens and regents ritualized behaviors such as gift giving educational coteries and through social networking literary and artistic patronage female authorship and epistolary strategies

The Identities of Catherine de' Medici Susan Broomhall, 2021-07-05 In The Identities of Catherine de Medici Susan Broomhall provides an innovative analysis of the representational strategies that constructed Catherine de Medici and sought to explain her behaviour and motivations Through her detailed exploration of the identities that the queen her allies supporters and clients sought to project and how contemporaries responded to them Broomhall establishes a new vision of this important sixteenth century protagonist a clearer understanding of the dialogic and dynamic nature of identity construction and reception and its consequences for Catherine de Medici s legacy memory and historiography

Till the Stars Burn out Above You Daniel Hudson, 2022-08-19 Imagine two teenagers in New Orleans in the early 1950 s Imagine a beautiful young lady from fashionable Saint Charles Avenue and a handsome young man from an ancient French family home on Howard Avenue Both have lived their young lives in varying states of isolation because of circumstances completely beyond their control Imagine that they happen to meet Imagine that they become fast friends Imagine that fate guides them to fall madly in love with each other In Till The Stars Burn Out Above You Mary Charmaine Day and Inman Emile Carnes IV learn early in their Summer of Love that their families have history While their mothers lovingly support their relationship they ll both have to deal with a maniacal gas lighting psychopath hell bent on destroying their relationship The historical epic book series We May Never Pass This Way Again explores how Human Beings interact and react to both love and to hatred True loves develop but are severely challenged Lives are changed Will true love survive and find a way or will supremely evil forces triumph and destroy true love the largest interest of this correspondence depends precisely upon the continuance beneath an affectionate personal relationship of a fundamental antagonism of interests and beliefs resolutely maintained on both sides George Sand with her lifelong passion for propaganda and reformation labors earnestly to bring Flaubert to her point of view to remould him nearer to her heart's desire He with a playful deference to the sex and years of his friend addresses her in his letters as Dear Master Yet in the essentials of the conflict though she never gives over her effort he never budge a jot he has taken his ground and in his last unfinished work Bouvard and Pecuchet he dies stubbornly fortifying his position To the last she speaks from a temperament lyrical sanguine imaginative optimistic and sympathetic he from a temperament dramatic melancholy observing cynical and satirical She insists upon natural goodness he upon innate depravity She urges her faith in social regeneration he vents his splenetic contempt for the mob Through all the successive shocks of disillusioning experience she expects the renovation of humanity by some religious some semi mystical amelioration of its heart he grimly concedes the greater part of humanity to the devil and can see no escape for the remnant save in science and aristocratic organization For her finally the literary art is an instrument of social salvation it is her means of touching the world with her ideals her love her aspiration for him the literary art is the avenue of escape from the meaningless chaos of existence it is his subtly critical condemnation of the world The origins of these unreconciled antipathies lie deep beneath the personal relationship of George Sand and Gustave Flaubert lie deep beneath their successors who with more or less of amenity in their manners are still debating the same questions today The main currents of the nineteenth century with fluent and refluxing tides clash beneath the controversy and as soon as one hears its long withdrawing roar and thinks it is dying away and is become a part of ancient history it begins again and will be heard no doubt by the last man as a solemn accompaniment to his final contention with his last adversary
