Cartographies Diana Young, 1994-01-01 Editor's Notes to Accompany Cartographies Cynthia Y. Young, Diana Young, 1994 Map As Art, The: Contemporary Artists Explore Cartography Katharine Harmon, Gayle Clemans, 2009-09-23 This work is filled with 350 works by well known artists such as Joyce Kozloff Ed Ruscha Julian Schnabel and Olafer Eliasson All are wayfinders charting the highways and byways of the spirit and the topography of the soul

World Literature ,2010 Cartographies of Culture Damian Walford Davies, 2012-06-15 Cartographies of Culture New Geographies of Welsh Writing in English offers a pioneering new examination of the links between maps and imaginative writing Concerned to draw literary studies and geography into a fruitful dialogue the book offers a genuinely interdisciplinary study of literary texts in relation to the spatialities of culture Taking the anglophone literature of Wales as its main data field the book offers a boldly imaginative and stringently theorised analysis of five literary maps What emerges is nothing less than a new way of reading literature through and as maps Visualization in Modern Cartography A.M. MacEachren, D.R. Fraser Taylor, 2013-10-22 Visualization in Modern Cartography explores links between the centuries old discipline of cartography and today's revolutionary developments in scientific visualization The book has three main goals 1 to pass on design and symbolization expertise to the scientific visualization community information that comes from centuries of pre computer visualization by cartographers and their more recent experiences with computerizing the discipline 2 to help cartographers cope with the dramatic shift from print cartography to a dynamic virtual cartography for which their role is changing from that of map designer to one of spatial information display and or interface designer 3 to illustrate the expanded role for cartography in geographic environmental planning and earth science applications that comes with the development of interactive geographic visualization tools To achieve these goals the book is divided into three parts The first sets the historical cognitive and technological context for geographic cartographic visualization tool development The second covers key technological symbolization and user interface issues The third provides a detailed look at selected prototype geographic cartographic visualization tools and their applications Transpacific Cartographies Melody Yunzi Li, 2023-12-15 Transpacific Cartographies examines how contemporary Chinese diasporic narratives address the existential loss of home for immigrant communities at a time of global precarity and amid rising Sino US tensions Focusing on cultural productions of the Chinese diaspora from the 1990s to the present including novels by the Sinophone writers Yan Geling The Criminal Lu Yanshi Shi Yu New York Lover Chen Qian Listen to the Caged Bird Sing and Rong Rong Notes of a Couple as well as by the Anglophone writer Ha Jin A Free Life A Map of Betrayal selected TV shows Beijinger in New York The Way We Were and online literature Melody Yunzi Li argues that the characters in these stories create multilayered maps that transcend the territorial boundaries that make finding a home in a foreign land a seemingly impossible task In doing so these maps outline a transpacific landscape that reflects the psycho geography of homemaking for diasporic communities

Intersecting with and bridging Sinophone studies Chinese American studies and diaspora studies and drawing on theories of literary cartography Transpacific Cartographies demonstrates how these maps offer their readers different paths for finding a sense of home no matter where they are

New Directions in Radical Cartography Phil Cohen, Mike Duggan, 2021-12-17 New Directions in Radical Cartography looks at the contemporary debates about the role of maps in society It explores the emergence of counter mapping as a distinctive field of practice and the impact that digital mapping technologies have had on cartographic practice and theory It includes original research accounts of mapping projects and detailed readings of maps The contributors explore how digital mapping technologies have sponsored a new wave of practices that seek to challenge the power that maps are commonly assumed to have They document the continued vitality of analogue maps in the hands of artists and activists who are pushing the boundaries of what is mappable in different ways New Directions in Radical Cartography draws on a rich body of mapping work that exists as part of community action urban ethnography environmental activism humanitarianism and public engagement

The History of Cartography, Volume 4 Matthew H. Edney, Mary Sponberg Pedley, 2020-05-15 Since its launch in 1987 the History of Cartography series has garnered critical acclaim and sparked a new generation of interdisciplinary scholarship Cartography in the European Enlightenment the highly anticipated fourth volume offers a comprehensive overview of the cartographic practices of Europeans Russians and the Ottomans both at home and in overseas territories from 1650 to 1800 The social and intellectual changes that swept Enlightenment Europe also transformed many of its mapmaking practices A new emphasis on geometric principles gave rise to improved tools for measuring and mapping the world even as large scale cartographic projects became possible under the aegis of powerful states Yet older mapping practices persisted Enlightenment cartography encompassed a wide variety of processes for making circulating and using maps of different types The volume's more than four hundred encyclopedic articles explore the era's mapping covering topics both detailed such as geodetic surveying thematic mapping and map collecting and broad such as women and cartography cartography and the economy and the art and design of maps Copious bibliographical references and nearly one thousand full color illustrations complement the detailed entries
