Broken Vessels:

Broken Vessels Andre Dubus, 2010-11-23 The reflective essays of one of America's most accomplished authors Andre Dubus is celebrated for depicting the subtlest of human emotions and finding compassion for the most damaged and damaging of characters In the essays collected here the author turns the microscope on himself and the results are no less illuminating Intimate and evocative these autobiographical accounts of his childhood in Louisiana his experiences in the Marine Corps and later his life as a husband and father paint a vivid portrait of this acclaimed author Written with the sapience and depth of feeling that made his reputation in fiction Broken Vessels is perhaps Dubus's most intimate work of all This ebook features an illustrated biography of Andre Dubus including rare photos and never before seen documents from the author's estate

Into the Fullness of the Void Dov Elbaum, 2013-11-15 A spiritual journey both deeply personal and strikingly universal One of Israel's leading cultural figures Dov Elbaum grew up in an ultra Orthodox Jerusalem family and was a prodigy who seemed destined for greatness in the world of Talmud study But in his late teens he abruptly broke away and set off into secular Israeli society In this fascinating courageous and compelling autobiography Elbaum seeks to understand his decision and its consequences With the structure of Kabbalah as his road map Elbaum journeys into the deep recesses of his self and his soul The ultimate goal of his journey is the Void a Kabbalistic space that precedes God's creation of the world and a psychological state that precedes our formation as individuals It is a space of great vulnerability but also of hope for rebirth and renewal This is an intimate honest revealing work both deeply personal and strikingly universal The Hebrew edition was a bestseller and sold over 50 000 copies

The Surrender of Ethan Moses Terry Goetz, 2011-06 My name is Levi I am an angel prince sent to Earth to protect the fold ensure God's providences retaliate against God's foes and do God's bidding for the redeemed in Christ This is the story of one of my charges as he endeavors to glorify God and humbly serve man Ethan Moses does not live the typical sedentary Christian life In his quest to serve God Ethan meets with many obstacles He builds a church only to see it burn to the ground He encounters racism and bigotry of the worst kind He struggles to find his soul mate after losing her once before But through all this Ethan never loses sight of God's wonderful ability to turn what seems disastrous into a marvelous blessing The Surrender of Ethan Moses is a story that spans almost a century follows Ethan through mysterious rendezvous in Venice bait and switch scams in Chicago and even a few chance meetings with the angel Levi himself Even when Ethan finally settles into his golden years there is still adventure ahead as he mentors energetic young pastor Hudson Taylor Hudson discovers just as you will that there is much more to this old pastor than meets the eye The Surrender of Ethan Moses is a truly inspirational story told by one of God's angels about one of God's humble servants It offers a compelling intriguing account of how all of us should endeavor to live our lives as Christians

Graves, Miriam T. Stark, 2007-04-05 For centuries the goal of archaeologists was to document and describe material artifacts and at best to make inferences about the origins and evolution of human culture and about prehistoric and historic societies During the 1960s however a number of young primarily American archaeologists including William Longacre rebelled against this simplistic approach Wanting to do more than just describe Longacre and others believed that genuine explanations could be achieved by changing the direction scope and methodology of the field What resulted was the New Archaeology which blended scientific method and anthropology It urged those working in the field to formulate hypotheses derive conclusions deductively and most important to test them While over time the New Archaeology has had its critics one point remains irrefutable archaeology will never return to what has since been called its state of innocence In this collection of twelve new chapters four generations of Longacre prot g s show how they are building upon and developing but also modifying the theoretical paradigm that remains at the core of Americanist archaeology The contributions focus on six themes prominent in Longacre s career the intellectual history of the field in the late twentieth century archaeological methodology analogical inference ethnoarchaeology cultural evolution and reconstructing ancient society More than a comprehensive overview of the ideas developed by one of the most influential scholars in the field however Archaeological Anthropology makes stimulating contributions to contemporary research The contributors do not unequivocally endorse Longacre s ideas they challenge them and expand beyond them making this volume a fitting tribute to a man whose robust research and teaching career continues to resonate Homegrown Phasia, 2017-05-05 Its called Homegrown because thats what each of us are when we pull away all of the camouflagethe weeds Like the unforgettable burning taste of hot moonshine or that cooling draught of country iced water the wild bittersweet juiciness of blackberries and the sweet tartness of homegrown peaches both canned in an old fashioned Mason jar its who I am Im a country girl whos been homegrown from seeds of love that were planted inside of me and sealed above by my Heavenly Father Like harvested and cultivated fruit that you cant pick up just anywhere because theyre grown for a special purpose so am I They were His seeds that were planted inside of me before thoughts of me were even conceived in the mind of my parents His purpose for me existed before I did His seeds of purpose exist despite the weeds of self abuse and childhood molestation Those seeds were resistant to those same weeds because our Heavenly Father knew beforehand what was needed in the seed to make those shoots strong enough to survive And now I know Hes counting on me to allow Him to nurture and prune them into the trees of prosperity and purpose for others to feed and feast upon To manifest finally into the forest of faith Hes anointed and called me to be I know God wants me to be a witness of His grace and goodness for the entire world to see I am His forest of love offering forgiveness and hope and giving emotional and physical release to millions of men and women who have been hiding behind their pride and their pain The Church ,1860

White,Elizabeth G. Hamilton,2019-03-15 The foundation of archaeometallurgy is the study of excavated assemblages of metals and related remains This volume presents in detail how the metals and such remains as crucibles excavated from four sites in northeast Thailand have been studied to understand the place of metal objects and technology in the ancient past of this region In addition to typological examination hundreds of technical analyses reveal the technological capabilities preferences and styles of metal artifact manufacturers in this part of Thailand Detailed examination of contexts of recovery of metal remains employing a life history approach indicates that metal objects in those societies were used primarily in daily life and only occasionally as grave goods The most surprising find is that casting of copper base artifacts to final form took place at all these village sites during the metal age period indicating a decentralized final production stage that may prove to be unusual for metal age societies These insights are made possible by applying the methods and theories introduced in the first volume of the suite of volumes that study the metal remains from Ban Chiang in regional context Thai Archaeology Monograph Series 2B University Museum Monograph 150 Chambers's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts ,1887 Journal - Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland,1894 The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute ,1894
