

SECURITIES BROKERS & DEALERS

- Securities brokers and dealers conduct trading in secondary markets.
- Brokers: act as agents for investors in the purchase or sale of securities. Their function is to match buyers with sellers, a function for which they are paid brokerage commissions.
- Dealers: link buyers and sellers by standing ready to buy and sell securities at given prices. Therefore they hold inventories of securities and make their living by selling these securities for a slightly higher price than they paid for them. High risk because they hold stocks whose prices can rise or fall.
- Brokerage firms: engage in all three securities market activities, acting as brokers, dealers, and investment bankers.
  - Brokerage firms started to engage in activities that traditionally conducted by commercial banks.
