Brooklyn Museum Of Art Building For The Future:

Brooklyn Museum of Art James Leggio,2004 Explores the history and development of this popular Mahattan museum

The Annual Report of the Brooklyn Museum Brooklyn Museum,1952 Marble Palaces, Temples of Art Ingrid A. Steffensen-Bruce,1998 The era from 1890 to 1930 constituted a building boom for American art museums designed in a monumental classical style both the proliferation of the buildings and the ubiquity of the style seem to indicate an architectural as well as a sociocultural phenomenon The present work is an attempt to place the American art museum building of this period into its historical milieu and employs over one hundred illustrations and sociocultural analysis to explain the significance of both the institutions and the structures housing them to those who came into regular contact with them including architects patrons journalists and museum personnel The American Architect ,1917 Humanities ,1987 Humanities National Endowment for the Humanities,1987 The Boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens, Counties of Nassau and Suffolk, Long Island, New York, 1609-1924 Henry Isham Hazelton,1925 The New Art Museum Library Amelia Nelson,Traci E. Timmons,2021-04-15 The New Art Museum Library addresses the issues facing today s art museum libraries through a series of scholarly essays written by top librarians in the field In 2007 the publication Art Museum Libraries and Librarianship edited by Joan Benedetti was the first to solely focus on the field of art museum librarianship In the decade since then many changes have occurred in the field both technological and ideological prompting the need for a follow up publication In addition to representing current thinking and practice this new publication also addresses the need to clearly articulate and define the art museum library s value within its institution It documents the broad changes in the environment that art museum libraries now function within and to celebrate the many innovative initiatives that are flourishing in this new landscape Librarians working in art museum face unique challenges as museums redefine what object based visitor centric learning looks like in the 21st century These unique challenges mean that art museum libraries are developing new strategies and initiatives so that they can continue to thrive in this environment The unique nature of these initiatives mean that they will be useful to librarians working in a wide range of special libraries as well as more broadly in academic and public libraries The New Art Museum Library is uniquely positioned to present new strategies and initiatives including digital art history initiatives the new norms in art museum library staffing and the public programing priorities that are core to many art museum libraries today This book is an endorsed project of ARLIS NA

Brooklyn Museum of Art Brooklyn Museum,1997 The Brooklyn Museum of Art will be 100 years old in 1997 When first built by the prestigious New York firm of McKim Mead and White it occupied 450 000 sq ft on Brooklyn s Grand Army Plaza It was designed as the largest cultural edifice in the world and if it had been finished to its original specifications it would have surpassed even the Louvre in size and grandeur The Brooklyn Museum of Art contains more than one and a half million objects ranging from ancient Egyptian masterpieces to contemporary art It has particularly strong holdings of ancient

Egyptian and 19th and 20th century American art but it has representative collections of almost every culture This new companion volume to the museum will provide a fitting publication to celebrate its past present and the future in its centenary year
