Brown Men and Red Sand Charles Percy Mountford, 1890-1977,1981      Brown Men and Red Sand [Review of]
Francis Lancelot Sutherland Bell,1949      Brown Men and Red Sand ,1967      Review of Brown Men and Red Sand Brian Allan Lefevre Cranstone,1951      Review of Brown men and Red Sand Francis Lancelot Sutherland Bell,1949      Book choice of the week ,1952      The Rotarian ,1951-06 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine      Whatever Happened to Tradition? Tim Stanley,2021-10-14 The West feels lost Brexit Trump the coronavirus we hurtle from one crisis to another lacking definition terrified that our best days are behind us The central argument of this book is that we can only face the future with hope if we have a proper sense of tradition political social and religious We ignore our past at our peril The problem argues Tim Stanley is that the Western tradition is anti tradition that we have a habit of discarding old ways and old knowledge leaving us uncertain how to act or even of who we really are In this wide ranging book we see how tradition can be both beautiful and useful from the deserts of Australia to the court of nineteenth century Japan Some of the concepts defended here are highly controversial in the modern West authority nostalgia rejection of self and the hunt for spiritual transcendence We ll even meet a tribe who dress up their dead relatives and invite them to tea Stanley illustrates how apparently eccentric yet universal principles can nurture the individual from birth to death plugging them into the wider community and creating a bond between generations He also demonstrates that tradition far from being pretentious or rigid survives through clever adaptation that it can be surprisingly egalitarian The good news he argues is that it can also be rebuilt It s been done before The process is fraught with danger but the ultimate prize of rediscovering tradition is self knowledge and freedom      Spinning the Dream Anna Haebich,2008-03-01 In Spinning the Dream multi award winning historian Anna Haebich re evaluates the experience of Assimilation in Australia providing a meticulously researched and masterfully written assessment of its implications for Australia s Indigenous and ethnic minorities and for immigration and refugee policy      Hunters and Collectors Tom Griffiths,1996-04 Hunters and Collectors is about historical consciousness and environmental sensibilities in European Australia from the mid nineteenth century to the present It is in part a collective biography of amateur antiquarians archaeologists naturalists journalists and historians people who shaped the Australian historical imagination Dr Griffiths illuminates the way these avid collectors and investigators of the Australian land and of its indigenous inhabitants contributed a sense of identity at colony wide and eventually nationwide level He also considers the rise of professional history anthropology and archaeology in the universities which ignored the efforts of the amateurs Griffiths shows how the seemingly trivial activities of these hunters and collectors feed into the political and environmental debates of the 1990s This book is outstanding in its originality
