Bubbles A Self Portrait Edition:

Bubbles Beverly Sills,1976 Contains primary source material Women in American Operas of the 1950s Monica A. Hershberger,2023 The first feminist analysis of some of the most performed works in the American opera canon emphasizing the voices and perspectives of the sopranos who brought these operas to life In the 1950s composers and librettists in the United States were busy seeking to create an opera repertory that would be deeply responsive to American culture and American concerns They did not break free however of the age old paradigm so typically expressed in European opera that is of women as either saintly and pure or sexually corrupt with no middle ground As a result in American opera of the 1950s women risked becoming once again opera s inevitable victims Yet the sopranos who were tasked with portraying these paragons of virtue and their opposites did not always take them as their composers and librettists made them Sometimes they rewrote through their performances the roles they had been assigned Sometimes they used their lived experiences to invest greater authenticity in the roles With chapters on The Tender Land Susannah The Ballad of Baby Doe and Lizzie Borden this book analyzes some of the most performed yet understudied works in the American opera canon It acknowledges Catherine Clement s famous description of opera as the undoing of women while at the same time illuminating how singers like Beverly Sills and Phyllis Curtin worked to resist such undoing years before the official resurgence of the American feminist movement In short they ended up helping to dismantle powerful gendered stereotypes that had often reigned unquestioned in opera houses until then The Manuscript Inventories and the Catalogs of Manuscripts, Books, and Periodicals: Book catalog, A-Chal Arthur and Elizabeth Schlesinger Library on the History of Women in America,1984 The Tablet ,1887 Public Library Catalog ,1979 Prince Ubbely Bubble's New Story Book ... Walker,2002-12-20 The growing cult of the celebrity in contemporary culture is throwing up paradoxical ideas about the contradictions between high art and mass appeal and blurring the already unstable boundaries between art commodity and popular culture This is a lively and accessible study of the phenomenon informed by a look at what happens when the serious world of art collides with celebrity Global culture is now dominated by celebrities some of whom like Madonna and Stallone are art collectors and some like Dennis Hopper and David Bowie are part time artists Walker explains how artists such as Warhol Gavin Turk Jeff Koons Elizabeth Peyton and Alison Jackson contribute to but also critique the cult of celebrity by depicting film celebrities rock stars and royalty in paintings and statues Celebritisation has overtaken the art world too Walker surveys 14 art stars of the twentieth century from Dali to Tracey Emin He also reviews alternatives the left wing pantheon of figures such as Mao Che Guevara and Rosa Luxemburg and pictorial celebrations of the people
