A Halloween-themed illustration featuring four skeletons dancing around a central campfire. The scene is set at night under a large, full moon, with dark, leafless trees in the background. The skeletons are depicted in various dynamic dance poses, some with arms raised. The campfire is a bright, glowing orange and yellow, providing the primary light source for the scene. The overall atmosphere is spooky and festive.

The Whole Motion James Dickey, 2012-02-08 For over three decades James Dickey has been one of the nation's most important poets and a prominent man of letters. The Whole Motion collects his poetic oeuvre into a single volume: 235 poems from his first book Into the Stone (1960) to The Eagle's Mile (1990) along with previously uncollected poems and unpublished apprentice works.

Old Time Country Guitar Stephen Cicchetti, Fly Bredenberg, 1975-12-30 An instruction guide to old-timey solo fingerpicking guitar. With transcriptions of the playing of Sam McGee, Dick Justice, Dan Everett, and the South Georgia Hiballers. Lena Hughes and many others made from the original recordings of the 20s and 30s. Complete instruction and notation in guitar tablature.

The Wesleyan Tradition Michael Collier, 2012-08-22 Since issuing its first volumes in 1959, the Wesleyan poetry program has challenged the reigning aesthetic of the time and profoundly influenced the development of American poetry. One of the country's oldest programs, its greatest achievement has been the publication of early works by yet undiscovered poetry who have since become major awarded Pulitzer and Bollingen prizes, National Book Awards, and many other honors. At a time when other programs are being phased out, Wesleyan takes this opportunity to celebrate its distinguished history and reaffirm its commitment to poetry with publication of The Wesleyan Tradition. Drawing from some 250 volumes, editor Michael Collier documents the wide-ranging impact of these works. In his introduction, he describes the literary and cultural context of American poetics in more recent decades, tracing the evolution of the Deep Image and Confessional movements of the 50s and 60s and exploring the emergence of the prose-lyric style. Although the success of the Wesleyan program has inspired its share of imitators, no other program has had such a fundamental impact. Works by the eighty-six poets included here both document and celebrate that contribution.

Struggling for Wings Robert Kirschten, 1997 Struggling for Wings is a diverse collection of reviews, interviews, and essays on the controversial career of James Dickey, a writer whose work has engendered commentary ranging from high praise to scathing personal attack. Never before collected, the materials in this volume record America's critical response to Dickey beginning in the early 1960s when he first began publishing poetry and continuing through the mid 1990s with comprehensive overviews of Dickey's entire canon.

Living in the Land of Limbo Carol Levine, 2021-04-30 AAUP Books Committee Outstanding Title of 2015 Living in the Land of Limbo is the first anthology of short stories and poems about family caregivers. These men and women find themselves in limbo as they struggle to take care of a family member or friend in the uncertain world of chronic illness. The authors explore caregivers' experiences as they deal with family conflicts, the complexities of the health care system, and the impact of their choices on their lives and the lives of others. The book includes selections devoted to caregivers of aging parents, husbands, and wives, ill children, and relatives, lovers, and friends. A final section is devoted to paid caregivers and their clients. Among the conditions that form the background of the selections are dementia, HIV/AIDS, mental illness, multiple sclerosis, and pediatric cancer. Many of the authors are well-known poets and writers, but others have not been published in mainstream media They represent a range of cultural backgrounds Although their works approach caregiving in very different ways the authors share a commitment to emotional truth unvarnished by societal ideals of what caregivers should feel and do These stories and poems paint profoundly moving and revealing portraits of family caregivers Flat Pick Country Guitar Happy Traum,1973-06-01 Of all the styles of folk guitar the most familiar is known by a variety of names such as Carter Family Style The Church Lick Woody Guthrie The Country Lick or just plain Flat Pickin Whatever its name though the foot tapping boom chicka boom chicka rhythm is as ubiquitous as country music itself it was played by cowboy balladeers old time southern mountaineers Gene Autry Woody Guthrie Hank Williams The Carter Family well the list could go on and on More recently the art of country flat picking has been raised to a higher level of virtuosity and skill by pickers such as Doc Watson Clarence White and the great Nashville studio musicians Flat picking can be as simple or as complicated as you want to make it and that is what this book is all about Flat Pick Country Guitar starts with the simplest strums and gradually introduces techniques such as bass runs hammer ons and pull offs preparing the student for more advanced techniques and at the same time teaching him some fine traditional country songs Before he is halfway through this book he will be playing melody breaks with chord accompaniment and by the time he works his way through to the end he will be playing fiddle tunes hoedowns bluegrass licks fancy cross picking and some more modern string bending techniques known as The Nashville Sound This book is a first of its kind to focus on the whole range of styles that go by the name Flat picking Though this book includes a variety of instrumental runs breaks and solos its main emphasis is on flat picking as an accompaniment within a string band bluegrass ensemble or country rock group or behind a vocalist with or without a back up guitar
