A Carnivore's Inquiry Sabina Murray, 2007-12-01 From a PEN Faulkner Award winning author The Caprices seduces readers with a thriller praised as dazzling lovely literate and deeply unnerving The New York Times Book Review When we meet Katherine the winning and rather disturbing twenty three year old narrator she has just left Italy and arrived in New York City but what has propelled her there is a mystery She soon strikes up an affair with a middle aged Russian migr novelist she meets on the subway and almost immediately moves into his apartment Katherine s occasional allusions to a frighteningly eccentric mother and tyrannical father suggest a somberness at the center of her otherwise flippant and sardonic demeanor Soon restless she begins journeying across the continent trailed everywhere she goes by a string of murders As the ritualistic killings begin to pile up Katherine takes to meditating on cannibalism in literature art and history The story races toward a hair raising conclusion while Katherine and the reader close in on the reasons for both her and her mother s fascination with aberrant violent behavior A brilliantly subtle commentary on twenty first century consumerism and Western culture s obsession with new frontiers A Carnivore s Inquiry is an unsettling exploration of the questionable appetites that lurk beneath the veneer of civilization Murray paces her psychological thriller with consummate control keeping the reader enthralled through subtle suggestion and a scattering of grisly details Readers will be hooked by Murray s classy treatment of her sexy sinister subject matter Publishers Weekly

A Carnivore's Inquiry Sabina Murray, 2004 As the ritualistic killings begin to pile up Katherine comforts and inspires herself by meditating on cannibalism in literature art and history and examines subjects as diverse as the Donner Party the fall of Dante s Count Ugolino and the story behind Gericault s The Raft of the Medusa Slowly Katherine realizes that at the center of the mysterious deaths lies a bloody truth that in the beam of a flashlight in the woods in the scrabbling claws in the cupboard something is making itself known As the story races towards its frightening conclusion Katherine and the reader close in on the true reason for her fascination with aberrant violent behavior

BOOK JACKET The Children of 1965 Min Hyoung Song, 2013-04-15 Since the 1990s a new cohort of Asian American writers has garnered critical and popular attention Many of its members are the children of Asians who came to the United States after the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 lifted long standing restrictions on immigration This new generation encompasses writers as diverse as the graphic novelists Adrian Tomine and Gene Luen Yang the short story writer Nam Le and the poet Cathy Park Hong Having scrutinized more than one hundred works by emerging Asian American authors and having interviewed several of these writers Min Hyoung Song argues that collectively these works push against existing ways of thinking about race even as they demonstrate how race can facilitate creativity Some of the writers eschew their identification as ethnic writers while others embrace it as a means of tackling the uncertainty that many people feel about the near future In the literature that they create a number of the writers that Song discusses take on pressing contemporary matters such as demographic change environmental catastrophe and the widespread sense that the United States is in national decline     Racial Asymmetries Stephen Hong Sohn,2014 Challenging the tidy links among authorial position narrative perspective and fictional content Stephen Hong Sohn argues that Asian American authors have never been limited to writing about Asian American characters or contexts Racial Asymmetries specifically examines the importance of first person narration in Asian American fiction published in the postrace era focusing on those cultural productions in which the author s ethnoracial makeup does not directly overlap with that of the storytelling perspective Through rigorous analysis of novels and short fiction such as Sesshu Foster s Atomik Aztex Sabina Murray s A Carnivore s Inquiry and Sigrid Nunez s The Last of Her Kind Sohn reveals how the construction of narrative perspective allows the Asian American writer a flexible aesthetic canvas upon which to engage issues of oppression and inequity power and subjectivity and the complicated construction of racial identity Speaking to concerns running through postcolonial studies and American literature at large Racial Asymmetries employs an interdisciplinary approach to reveal the unbounded nature of fictional worlds Stephen Hong Sohn is Assistant Professor of English at Stanford University He is the co editor of Transnational Asian American Literature Sites and Transits     Rain Taxi Review of Books ,2004     Elle ,2004     2006 Novel & Short Story Writer's Market ,2005     The Book Review Digest ,2005     Bookforum ,2003     Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004     American Book Publishing Record ,2003     The New York Times Index ,2005     The Conduct of Inquiry Richard Kitchener,1999-02-18 The Conduct of Inquiry is a practical introduction to logic and scientific method It provides a comprehensive and current discussion of the logic of scientific method and scientific reasoning The author places consistent stress on the evaluation of actual scientific reasoning and the development of critical thinking skills by employing numerous examples that require the application of the principles discussed in the text Each chapter lays out basic underlying principles of logic and scientific method and illustrates them by reference to detailed case studies in the history of science The method of proceeding from concrete case studies to general principle embodied in the examples provides an understandable progression for those learning the basic ideas of logic and scientific method     Valiant Gentlemen Sabina Murray,2017-11-21 A novel as vigorous audacious and unpredictable as Casement himself Murray translates the past into a present as immediate as it is unnerving New York Times Book Review     The Publishers Weekly ,2005     Books Out Loud ,2007     Chicago Tribune Index ,2004     Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2004     Media Review Digest C Edward Wall,2005-08     Inquiry ,1982
