Imagining the Age of Goethe in German Literature, 1970-2010 John David Pizer, 2011 This is the first book length study devoted to modern German author as character fiction set in the Age of Goethe It shows for the first time in a sustained manner the powerful hold the Goethezeit continues to exercise on the imagination of many of Germany's leading writers This inner German dialogue across the ages provides an important corrective to the dominant critical view that contemporary German language literature is composed primarily under the sign of both globalization and the influence of mass American culture Book cover "Wenn sie das Wort Ich gebraucht". John Pustejovsky, Jacqueline Vansant, 2013 This volume of original essays celebrates Barbara Becker Cantarino whose prolific publications on German literary culture from 1600 to the twentieth century are major milestones in the field of German cultural studies The range of topics in the collection reflects the breadth of Becker Cantarino's scholarship Examining literature from the sixteenth to the twenty first centuries the contributors explore the intersections of gender race and genre history and gender and gender and violence They provide fresh readings of the works of known and lesser known writers including Cyriacus Spangenberg Maria Anna Sagers Luise Gottsched Heinrich von Kleist Frank Wedekind Christa Wolf Helga Sch tz Ter zia Mora and Martina Hefter Their discussions explore the possibilities and limitations of theoretical discourses on travel literature deconstruction and gender and suggest new avenues of investigation

Recasting Historical Women Stephanie Bird, 1998-04 This book presents critical readings of eight contemporary German novels which feature historically documented women as their main protagonist and which reconstruct women's lives by combining source material and invention Protagonists include Cornelia Goethe Caroline Schlegel Schelling Karoline von Guenderröde and Charlotte Corday Through a thorough examination of these novels the wider complexities of female identity feminism literary technique and historiography are illuminated and discussed The author examines how historical events are used to substantiate ideological positions and how the narrators consider this problematic aspect of their project

Frederiksen, Elizabeth G. Ametsbichler, 1998-02-28 Women have contributed to the literature of German speaking countries since the Middle Ages and they continue to write important works at the close of the 20th century While research on texts by women writers in German speaking countries has increased substantially most of these authors remain virtually unknown to English speaking scholars and students The first work of its kind in English this reference book contains alphabetically arranged entries for 54 Austrian German and Swiss women writers such as Hrotsvit von Gandersheim Louise Aston Elfriede Jelinek and Erica Pedretti from the tenth century to the present day Each entry includes a biography a discussion of major themes a survey of criticism and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources An introductory essay overviews the history of literature by women in German speaking countries and an extensive bibliography concludes the volume Women have actively shaped literature in German speaking countries from the Middle Ages to the present day These authors continue to enrich the world of letters and an increasing amount of scholarly attention is given to their writings In spite of their contributions however most of these writers are virtually unknown to English speaking scholars and students And though one of the explicit goals of feminist literary and cultural studies has been to provide a voice to a multitude of diverse authors feminist research still seems to focus heavily on texts by authors such as Christa Wolf Ingeborg Bachmann and Bettina von Arnim or on certain periods in 19th and 20th century German literature and culture As a result many other women authors have faded into obscurity Through entries written by expert contributors this reference book provides insights into the life and writings of 54 women authors from German speaking countries Entries are arranged alphabetically to facilitate use while an appendix lists the writers chronologically Included are profiles of authors from the tenth century to the present day such as Hrotsvit von Gandersheim Louise Aston Elfriede Jelinek and Erica Pedretti Each entry includes a biography a discussion of major themes and stylistic features a survey of criticism and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources An introductory essay overviews the history of literature by women in German speaking countries and provides a theoretical context for the work and an extensive bibliography of secondary sources concludes the volume Papers Read Before the Society English Goethe Society, 1996 25 Years of
