Confessions Of Saint Augustine:

The Confessions Augustine of Hippo, 2010-12-30 Boulding's fresh new translation of this classic captures the essence of Augustine's struggle to integrate faith and understanding as his heart seeks to rest in God. Augustine's Confessions has been much translated but it is no exaggeration to say that Sister Maria Boulding's version is of a different level of excellence from practically anything else on the market. The Confessions of St. Augustine Augustine, 2008-04-01 Confessions is one of the most moving diaries ever recorded of a man's journey to the fountain of God's grace. Writing as a sinner not a saint, Augustine shares his innermost thoughts and conversion experiences and wrestles with the spiritual questions that have stirred the hearts of the thoughtful since time began. Starting with his childhood in Numidia through his youth and early adulthood in Carthage, Rome, and Milan, readers will see Augustine as a human being, a fellow traveler on the road to salvation. Though staggering around potholes and roadblocks, all will find strength in Augustine's message when the road gets rough. Look to God. Previously released in 1977, this book invites readers to join Augustine in his quest that led him to be one of the most influential Christian thinkers in the history of the church. The Confessions Saint Augustine, 2008-08-14 In this new translation, the brilliant and impassioned descriptions of Augustine's colourful early life are conveyed to the English reader with accuracy and art. Augustine tells of his wrestlings to master his sexual drive, his rare ascent from a humble Algerian farm to the edge of the corridors of high power at the imperial court of Milan, and his renunciation of secular ambition and marriage as he recovered the faith that his mother had taught him. It was in a Milan garden that Augustine finally achieved the act of will to Christian conversion, which he compared to a lazy man in bed finally deciding it is time to get up and face the day. Augustine's Confessions is more than mere autobiography for it is also an impassioned admission of past mistakes confession at a level most might think of it and praise of God confession of another sort that of love and awe Given his checkered past Augustine addressed the concerns of those who doubted the sincerity of his conversion to Christianity and his claim to the post of bishop of Hippo Regius in North Africa Thus the text made up of 13 chapters called books serves as an apologia formal written defense as well as a hortatory inspiration to others who have not yet converted Influenced by the Christian approach to reading sacred text as the living Word of God lectio divina The Confessions also require a deeper reading than readers may be accustomed to Lectio divina rooted in monastic practices of the 4th century AD is prayerful and approaches a text with a fourfold reading process read reflect meditate pray and rest in God's presence and resolve to grow and change in this new understanding Augustine's great work has impacted not only theology but also philosophy especially in discussion of time and memory

One who wants to get joy of book reading especially in very less time can go for it. About the Book. Aurelius Augustine was born at Tagaste, a city of Numidia on November 13, 354. This greatest of the Latin Christian Fathers was the son of a magistrate named Patricius who was a pagan till near the close of his life. Augustine was sent to school at Madaura and next to study at Carthage. His mother Monica early became an ardent Christian and her saintly influence guided the youth towards the light but entanglement in philosophic doubts constrained him to associate with the Manichaeans and then with the Platonists. His mental struggles lasted eleven years. Going to Rome to teach rhetoric he was invited to Milan to lecture and there was attracted by the eloquent preaching of Bishop Ambrose. His whole current of thought was changed and the two became ardent friends. In 391 Augustine was ordained priest by Valerius, Bishop of Hippo, whose colleague he was appointed in 395. At the age of 41 he was designated Bishop of Hippo and filled the office for 35 years, passing away in his 76th year on August 28, 430 during the third year of the siege of Hippo by the Vandals under Genseric. His numerous and remarkable works stamp him as one of the world's transcendent intellects. His two monumental treatises are the Confessions and The City of God. He begins with his infancy, pondering the many sins of his life before his conversion and he confesses not only his sins but even more the greatness of God. This work presents a wonderful contrast between the Holy God who created all things and whom heaven and earth cannot contain and a commonly sinful man who has joyfully received God's loving salvation and mercy.
