Dyer has laid the groundwork for all subsequent books in the field of team building. The first edition of this book was the pioneer text on team building; this third edition brings the whole field of team building up to date. The book discusses the major new trends including self-directed work teams, total quality initiatives, and cross-cultural teams, and reviews the strengths and weaknesses of these new developments in team building. Throughout the book, Dr. Dyer emphasizes the degree of commitment that managers and members of work teams must bring to the team building process. For team building to succeed, managers must adopt a true team philosophy, take responsibility for team building work, and become involved on a personal level. Key executives also must become involved by ensuring that the organization's culture and especially its review and reward systems support the goal of team building.

Paperbound Books in Print, 1992. Theory and Research in Conflict Management M. Afzalur Rahim, International Association for Conflict Management. Conference, 1990-08-21. The twelve essays collected here offer a wide-ranging look at the latest theory and research in conflict management. Organized around six broad topical areas, the volume explores organizational conflict, communication and conflict negotiation and bargaining, mediation and arbitration, conflict in the public sector, and international conflict. Interdisciplinary in scope, the essays are designed to help human resources professionals, industrial psychologists, managers, and students of organizational behavior learn to manage conflict by identifying ways to maximize its positive effects while minimizing its negative and potentially disruptive influences. Each of the six sections includes two chapters and an introduction by one of the leaders in the conflict management field. Among the topics addressed are the goal interdependence approach to communication in conflict, applied communications research in negotiation, comparing hardline and softline bargaining strategies, consistency in employee rights, the effect of payoff matrix, induced competition, and mediation in the People's Republic of China. The final two sections examine conflict in the public sector and international conflict with individual chapters on managing conflict in the policy process, the theoretical dimensions of environmental mediation, relationships of hierarchy and deterrence, and the management of international conflict. Taken together, these essays provide a comprehensive overview of the current state of theoretical and applied work in conflict management.
