Confucian Discourse And Chu Hsi's Ascendancy:

Confucian Discourse and Chu Hsi's Ascendancy Hoyt Cleveland Tillman, 1992-01-01 A major transformation in thought took place during the Southern Sung 1127-1279. A new version of Confucian teaching, Tao hsueh Confucianism, what modern scholars sometimes refer to as Neo Confucianism, became state orthodoxy, a privileged status which it retained until the twentieth century. Existing studies of the new Confucianism generally depict a single line of development to and from Chu Hsi 1130-1200, the greatest theoretician of the tradition. In this study of unprecedented scope, however, Hoyt Cleveland Tillman offers an integrated intellectual history of the development of Tao hsueh Confucianism which, for the first time, places Chu Hsi within the context of his contemporaries. Tillman's methodological strategy allows a rich, complex picture of the Tao hsueh movement to emerge, one that is sure to transform the field of Sung Confucianism. To reconstruct the evolution of the Tao hsueh group, Tillman studies a number of Confucians from four distinct periods, reflecting the basic diversity that existed among them. His discussion is deeply grounded in political and philosophical history and in research on the social networks that joined the members of the Tao hsueh group. Within this framework, he provides a vivid account of the changing scope of the movement, tracing its development into a fellowship and, at times, a political faction, and demonstrating its movement from diversity to gradually increasing exclusiveness, particularly under the influence of Chu Hsi. Close attention is given to confrontational writings and debates within the group, which covered such issues as humaneness, the function of the mind, uses of the Book of Changes, social welfare programs, teaching methods, expediency, and the grounds for knowledge and authority. A superbly erudite work, Confucian Discourse and Chu Hsi's Ascendancy is an invaluable contribution to the study of the history of Confucian thought in China. BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America, Inc. All Rights Reserved. Middle Imperial China, 900-1350 Linda Walton, 2023-08-03 A highly readable and engaging survey of China's history from the tenth through the mid-fourteenth centuries. Lure of the Supreme Joy Xin Conan-Wu, 2024-02-26 In this book, Xin Conan Wu presents a radically revisionist argument on Zhu Xi's 1130-1200 Neo Confucian philosophy of education. Via analyses of unfamiliar landscapes and the poems of the White Deer Grotto Academy, Yuelu Academy, and Wuyi Retreat, Conan Wu argues that when praxis speaks for orthodoxy, the eclipsed pedagogue casts a liberal light on the enshrined philosopher. Neo Confucian senses of the gaze and place engendered Zhu Xi's natural pedagogy, and he mapped the environment of his academies. This book cross-examines the textual traces and their innate vision, the physical sites, and their transhistorical milieus: the Eight Views and Nine Bends and their afterlives in China and Korea. It unfurls an academy education mutually reinforced by classical learning and self-cultivation, and sustained by a lure of the Supreme Joy of Confucian sagehood. Academies and Society in Southern Sung China Linda A. Walton, 1999-01-01 Academies were part of the educational institutions of the Sung 960-1279, an era in China marked by profound changes in economy, technology, thought, and social and political order. This study explains the phenomenon in the light of the changes in society and in intellectual circles Opusculum de Sectis apud Sinenses et Tunkinenses Father Adriano di St. Thecla, 2018-05-31 This 1750 text written by a Catholic missionary in Tonkin is the earliest known systematic first hand account of Vietnamese religious practice including chapters on Confucianism Buddhism the worship of spirits magicians fortune tellers and diviners and Christianity in the region It was recently discovered in a Paris archive and will be of interest to a broad array of scholars Includes a facsimile of the original manuscript The Disenchantment of Political Development Nasr M. Arif, 2002-11-06 The Disenchantment of Political Development is a serious study of the most problematic issues of development Author Nasr M Arif examines theories of political and social development that have been presented to the non Western world as scientific theories which represent the only valid paradigm Through a multi method approach the epistemological cultural socio political and economical dimensions of development are deeply analyzed Paul Tillich and Chu Hsi Kin Ming Au, 2002 This book demonstrates the similarities within differences between Paul Tillich s 1886 1965 and Chu Hsi s 1130 1200 concepts of human condition Tillich and Chu one of the leading Christian theologians of the twentieth century and the greatest Sung Neo Confucian philosopher respectively were both profound students of human nature By developing three vague comparative theological categories unity activity and reunification this book suggests that although these two great thinkers came from two radically different religious traditions and cultures Tillich and Chu articulated similar views of the unity of human reality and the problem of human existence Furthermore they proposed remarkably parallel strategies to resolve the tensions of finite human existence in searching for a reunification of human nature with its root in divine reality Although these three comparative categories are generated from the fertile matrix of Tillich s thought they are designed to deal with a problem and its resolution common to Chu s thought as well Asian Thought & Society, 1995 儒家研究, 1998 Confucian Studies Xinzhong Yao, Weiming Tu, 2011 While having substantially declined in political and social influence Confucianism was revived by leading intellectuals so called Modern New Confucians in the twentieth century to deal with perennial problems facing modern people and society It is against this background that Confucian Studies has become an increasingly important subject taught in universities and colleges in North America Europe East Asia and Australia With more and more universities and colleges offering courses on or relating to Confucian philosophy ethics religion and politics this new collection from Routledge answers the urgent need for a source book in contemporary Confucian Studies Hsieh Liang-tso and the Analects of Confucius Thomas W. Selover, 2005-01-20 Hsieh Liang tso c 1050 c 1120 known as master Shang ts ai was one of the leading direct disciples of Ch eng Hao and Ch eng I the two brothers who were the early leaders of the Confucian revival known as Neo Confucianism in Northern Sung China Hsieh was thus among the first to recognize and follow the insights of the Ch eng brothers as definitive of the authentic Confucian tradition a recognition that became the conviction of the majority of later Confucian scholars and practitioners The present book is a focused analysis of the core value of Confucian thought namely jen humanity or co humanity through an investigation of Hsieh Liang tso s analysis of the Analects of Confucius Selover argues that Hsieh s handling of key issues in interpreting and applying the Confucian Analects his experiential reasoning and his deference to scriptural classics and earlier tradition bear important similarities to the practice of theology in Western religious traditions The volume also contains a translation of Hsieh s commentary on the Analects as well as a foreword by the renowned scholar of Confucianism Tu Wei ming

A Comparative History of World Philosophy Ben-Ami Scharfstein,1998-02-27 A Comparative History of World Philosophy presents a personal yet balanced guide through what the author argues to be the three great philosophical traditions Chinese European and Indian The book breaks through the cultural barriers between these traditions proving that despite their considerable differences fundamental resemblances exist in their abstract principles Ben Ami Scharfstein argues that Western students of philosophy will profit considerably if they study Indian and Chinese philosophy from the very beginning along with their own Written with clarity and infused with an engaging narrative voice this book is organized thematically presenting in virtually every chapter characteristic views from each tradition that represent similar positions in the core areas of metaphysics and epistemology At the same time Scharfstein develops each tradition historically as the chapters unfold He presents a great variety of philosophical positions fairly avoiding the relativism and ethnocentrism that could easily plague a comparative presentation of Western and non Western philosophies

Competition Over Content Hilde Godelieve Dominique De Weerd,2007 Between the sixth and twentieth centuries the civil service examinations created and maintained political coherence across the Chinese polity Preparation for the examinations transformed the lives of literate elites by defining educational standards and disseminating a language that determined elite status However as participation in the examinations became central to that status an intense competition to determine the educational curriculum and the subject matter of the examinations erupted between intellectual and political rivals The principal goal of this book is to explain the restructuring of the examination field during a critical point in its history the Southern Song dynasty 1127 1279 which witnessed the increasing domination of the examinations by the Neo Confucian Learning of the Way movement By analyzing textbooks examination questions and essays and official and private commentary Hilde De Weerd examines how occupational political and intellectual groups shaped curricular standards and examination criteria and how examination standards in turn shaped political and intellectual agendas These questions reframe the debate about the civil service examinations and their place in the imperial order
