Confusion Of Stones Two Novellas:

Edinburgh Companion to the Arab Novel in English Nouri Gana, 2013-09-07 The novel is a largely imported European genre coming relatively late to the history of Arab letters It should therefore perhaps come as no surprise that the first novel to have been written by an Arab was written in English Ameen Rihani's The Book of Khalid 1911 However subsequent years saw the flourishing of first Arabic novels then the Francophone Arab novel Only in the last two decades has the Anglophone Arab novel experienced a second coming and it is this re emergence of literary activity that is the focus of this collection Opening up the field of diasporic Anglo Arab literature to critical debate the Companion presents a range of critical responses and pedagogical approaches to the Anglo Arab novel It offers both classroom friendly essays and critically sophisticated analyses bringing together original critical studies of the major Anglo Arab novelists from established and emerging scholars in the field Voices of Exile in Contemporary Canadian Francophone Literature Elizabeth

Dahab, 2010-12-01 Over the last four decades the largest French speaking state in North America QuZbec has nested more than a dozen vibrant modes of French expression created by members of the varied cultural communities that have settled there Voices of Exile in Contemporary Canadian Francophone Literature examines the works of several first generation Canadian authors originating from Lebanon Iraq Egypt and the Maghreb who produced a trilingual literature that reflects the diversity of their cultural backgrounds By casting a critical eye on the works of Saad Elkhadem Naim Kattan Abla Farhoud Wajdi Mouawad and HZdi Bouraoui F Elizabeth Dahab explores themes styles and structures that characterize the oeuvre of those authors Dahab demonstrates that their mode is exile and in so doing she reveals the ways in which these writers seek to shape their art using a host of innovative techniques that engage their renewed cultural identity

Negotiating Diasporic Identity in Arab-Canadian Students Wisam Kh. Abdul-Jabbar, 2019-05-09 This book framed through the notion of double consciousness brings postcolonial constructs to sociopolitical and pedagogical studies of youth that have yet to find serious traction in education Significantly this book contributes to a growing interest among educational and curriculum scholars in engaging the pedagogical role of literature in the theorization of an inclusive curriculum Therefore this study not only recognizes the potential of immigrant literature in provoking critical conversation on changes young people undergo in diaspora but also explores how the curriculum is informed by the diasporic condition itself as demonstrated by this negotiation of foreignness between the student and selected texts The Confusion of Stones Marwan
