Education Under Colonial Rule James Patrick Hubbard,2000 In this comprehensive work James P Hubbard provides an in depth examination of education in Nigeria under British colonial rule placing it in its broader social and political context He focuses on one of the most advanced schools in the Northern Provinces Katsina College Using information from government archives he explores the major factors and government policies that shaped the College and colonial education in general He reveals how colonial educators implemented these policies as well as African reactions to the educational system Details concerning the kinds of subjects that were taught and characteristics of the student body are also included Relevant for scholars of African history this book provides new insights on the sociopolitical dynamics surrounding colonialism and the educational system that ultimately supported it      Peacebuilding, Constitutionalism and the Global South Kajit Bagu (John Paul),2019-07-05 This book presents the case that liberal constitutionalism in the global South is a legacy of colonialism and is inappropriate as a means of securing effective peace in regions that have been subject to recurrent conflict The work demonstrates the failure of liberal constitutionalism in guaranteeing peace in the postcolonial global South It develops an alternative more compelling constitutionalism for peacebuilding in conflicted regions This is based on constitutionalism that recognises plurality as a major feature in the global South Drawing on events in Nigeria it develops a constitutional model based on Cognitive Justice which could deliver peace by addressing historic conceptual legal institutional and structural issues that have created social inequality and injustice The study also incorporates insights from the development of plurinational constitutions in South America The book will be an invaluable resource for researchers academics and policy makers with an interest in constitutional legal theory peacebuilding and postcolonial studies

Modernization and the Crisis of Development in Africa Jeremiah I. Dibua,2006 In this book Jeremiah I Dibua challenges prevailing notions of Africa s development crisis by drawing attention to the role of modernization as a way of understanding the nature and dynamics of the crisis and how to overcome the problem of underdevelopment      African Review ,1901      Transafrican Journal of History ,1998      American Supremacy George Washington Crichfield,1908      Affairs of West Africa Edmund Dene Morel,1902      Paideuma ,1994      ,      The Native Races of the Empire Sir Godfrey Yeatman Lagden,1924      The Encyclopaedia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,1910      The Circle of Knowledge Henry Woldmar Ruoff,1919

Foreigners in Latin America and relations with foreign governments George Washington Crichfield,1908      The Encyclopaedia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,1911      Migration in Africa Michiel de Haas,Ewout Frankema,2022-03-30 This book introduces readers to the age of intra African migration a period from the mid 19th century onward in which the center of gravity of African migration moved decisively inward Most books tend to zoom in on Africa s external migration during the earlier intercontinental slave trades and the more recent outmigration to the Global North but this book argues that migration within the continent has been far more central to the lives of Africans over the course of the last two centuries. The book demonstrates that only by taking a broad historical and continent wide perspective can we understand the distinctions between the more immediate drivers of migration and deeper patterns of change over time. During the 19th century Africa's external slave trades gradually declined whilst Africa's expanding commodity export sectors drew in domestic labor. This led to an era of heightened mobility within the region marked by rapidly rising and vanishing migratory flows, increasingly diversified landscapes of migration systems and profound long term shifts in the wider patterns of migration. This era of inward focused mobility reduced with a resurgence of outmigration after 1960 when Africans became more deliberate in search of extra continental destinations with new diaspora communities emerging specifically in the Global North. Broad ranging in its temporal, spatial and thematic coverage, this book provides students and researchers with the perfect introduction to the age of intra African migration.
