youth remained with him through life and when he went to rule at Quebec the very spirit that dominated the court at Versailles crossed the sea with him A man is known by the things he loves The things which Frontenac most highly cherished were marks of royal favor the ceremony due to his own rank the right to command He was an egoist supremely interested in himself He was poor but at his country seat in France near Blois he kept open house in the style of a great noble Always he bore himself as one to whom much was due His guests were expected to admire his indifferent horses as the finest to be seen his gardens as the most beautiful his clothes as of the most effective cut and finish the plate on his table as of the best workmanship and the food as having superior avor He scolded his equals as if they were naughty children About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works *The Conquest of New France; a Chronicle of the Colonial Wars, by George M.
