Conrad's Eastern World:

Conrad's Eastern World Norman Sherry, 1966 A book for those interested in Conrad's life and work and or literary detection convincingly performed Professor Sherry establishes how well Conrad knew the East and how the original material he garnered there was supplemented from other sources he also shows what Conrad made of his experiences thus revealing clearly what the artist's own contribution was

Conrad's Western World Norman Sherry, 1971 Conrad's Western World traces the sources of Heart of Darkness Nostromo The Secret Agent and some of the short stories related to these novels As in his highly acclaimed Conrad's Eastern World Professor Sherry provides an interesting blend of biographical reconstruction and investigation into the originals of the main incidents and characters Kurtz Nostromo Verloc and many of the minor figures as well It has been possible to show in the study of Conrad's source material a movement away from analyses of personal experience or the narrated experiences of others to a manipulation of material entirely outside the bounds of his own experience This change reveals also a movement in interest from personal and private dilemmas to wider and more public concerns and shows Conrad developing a progressive sense of the frightening underside of human society Finally Professor Sherry considers the play of Conrad's mind over his source material and traces the development of individual works from the given sources to the completed fiction This reconstruction of Conrad's original materials and the tracing of their development into literary works of great distinction gives us a unique insight into Conrad's preoccupations and art

Conrad's Eastern Vision A. Yeow, 2008-11-20 This book traces the dialogic relation between Conrad's Eastern fiction and other histories arguing that it is in the intersections of art and history that we locate Conrad's irony In a direct response to the visual culture of his times Conrad sets up his fictional world as a hallucinated mirage stressing the veracity of his own Eastern vision
