Confessions Of The Broken Hearted:

Confessions of the Broken Hearted Eric Raynard,2005-08-01 Introduction Jonathan Dean When I first set out to find a limerick Book I could find not a one anywhere I d look So then I sat to think And I put pen to ink Now here s a book after the trouble I took Limericks are a form of poem that have intrigued me since I was first introduced to the form in a third grade class in 1982 at Garrison Elementary School Lewis County Kentucky USA My teacher Ms Skaggs gave our class an assignment to write a limerick I wrote several limericks that day in class which I have since lost though I never lost my fascination with the humorous form of poetry known as the Limerick This book differs from many others about limericks in that the majority of the poems contained herein are not what one would consider dirty It is my desire to share limericks that are witty yet at the same time are not offensive in nature I have attempted to write a book that would meet the approval of my mother

Confessions Of The Broken-Hearted J W Martinez,2026-01-26 When I wrote this book I thought of the chapters as a series of love letters to him depicted in titles of love songs from my favorite artists it also pays homage to my southern heritage hip hop and to my grandmother He s the boy I wanted to bring home and she passed away before he got a chance to meet her so I kind of make a tribute to her in the midst of this sexy love story There s flashbacks in this book that help connect the past to the present for example Dareon Enzo and Javi open the book in the present which you will see intertwines with their past in college which shows you the readers how everything happened after high school but in the end of Confessions of a Former Trade boy it starts as their future and it s a toxic love story of the best kind
