Confessions Jan Kaplicky, 2002-08-16 Confessions captures Jan Kaplicky's professional views on the future of architecture and his personal observations and reflections on society design politics and beauty This book is a tour de force of words and images packed full of innovative buildings and design ideas It provides a fascinating insight into the creative process of one of the most innovative architects working in Britain today Lavishly illustrated with photographs and sketches that cover a wide range of topics Images are accompanied by stimulating and thought provoking text Compelling reading for anyone working in architecture who will find Kaplicky's account of their profession amusing fair and inspiring Extreme Sites

Deborah Gans, Claire Weisz, 2004-05-21 Tackling a hot green architectural topic brownfield sites this title asks the essential question how should urban and post industrial sites best be rehabilitated to balance ecological and human needs This issue of AD is devoted to what planners refer to as brownfields These are often sites made toxic through a recipe of urbanism and industry from our great water thoroughfares to our landfills They are often the only sites available to us for planning consideration The book examines the conflict between the demands of ecology and development when reclaiming such sites for re development bringing together multiple viewpoints from different disciplines Includes the internationally renowned Andy Goldsworthy Glenn Murcutt and Renzo Piano It will recast the topic in a fresh and current light that will interest a wide audience from students to practitioners Aerial photographs maps and photo essays will give the visuals a richness and breadth of appeal Green is an architectural buzzword and is viewed as the new parameter for good practice The

The dream factory Alberto Alessi, 2016-11-24T00:00:00+01:00 I believe that our true nature is closer to an industrial research laboratory in the sphere of the applied and decorative arts than to a true industrial company in a traditional sense I would insist on this concept We are research laboratories whose role is to engage in a continuous mediation between the most advanced and inspired expressions of international creativity in product design on the one hand and the public's desires and dreams on the other a laboratory which by definition has to be distinguished by the utmost openness and receptiveness to the world of creativity Alberto Alessi Weather Architecture Jonathan Hill, 2013-06-17 Weather Architecture further extends Jonathan Hill's investigation of authorship by recognising the creativity of the weather At a time when environmental awareness is of growing relevance the overriding aim is to understand a history of architecture as a history of weather and thus to consider the weather as an architectural author that affects design construction and use in a creative dialogue with other authors such as the architect and user Environmental discussions in architecture tend to focus on the practical or the poetic but here they are considered together Rather than investigate architecture's relations to the weather in isolation they are integrated into a wider discussion of cultural and social influences on architecture The analysis of weather s effects on the design and experience of specific buildings and gardens is interwoven with a historical survey of changing attitudes to the weather in the arts sciences and society leading to a critical re evaluation of contemporary responses to climate change
