Canada and the Third World Karen Dubinsky, Sean Mills, Scott Rutherford, 2016-03-31 Even though they are aware of the Third World in relation to their daily lives most Canadians know little about the historical foundations and complex nature of their country s entanglements with non Western societies Canada and the Third World provides a long overdue introduction to Canada s historical relationship with the Third World The book critically explores this relationship by asking four central questions how can we understand the historical roots of Canada s relations with the Third World How have Canadians individuals and institutions alike practiced and imagined development How can we integrate Canada into global histories of empire decolonization and development And how should we understand the relationship between issues such as poverty racism gender equality and community development in the First and Third World alike

Rich Country Interests and Third World Development Robert Cassen, Richard Jolly, John W. Sewell, Robert Wood, 2025-04-01 First published in 1982 Rich Country Interests and Third World Development adds breadth and specificity to the exploration of the interests in Third World development of eleven rich countries the United States Canada Japan Australia the United Kingdom the Federal Republic of Germany The Netherlands Denmark Sweden Norway and France The authors analyze a spectrum of Northern economic political and security interests in development in the South They also examine how national experiences political traditions humanistic values and changing attitudes have influenced perceptions of and relationships with Third World countries over three decades of dramatic change in the North South environment This book helps lay a foundation for negotiated solutions to North South issues by offering a greater appreciation of differences as well as commonalities in interests both among and within industrial and developing countries An overview chapter points to issues broader than those raised in the country studies and addresses a critical question On what terms is it in the interests of the North and South to pursue and fashion interdependence between them in the 1980s

Development & Diaspora Wenona Mary Giles,Penny Van Esterik,1996 Extrait de l introduction The survival strategies and resilience of refugee women are vital to substenance and social change in their households workplaces and communities As we write this introduction Rwandese women and men and their families are becoming refugees in huge numbers just as in the past people from Vietnam Cambodia Laos Bosnia Sudan Mozambique have moved into exile News reports tell of the devastating circumstances that often await refugees makeshift camps devoid of water food health care and other basic human needs in addition to threats to security The forced displacement of millions of people across the world indicates that to remain safely in one s home community and country is no longer a fundamental human right It is difficult to step back from devastating images of refugees to see these women as individuals And it is equally difficult to distance oneself by theoretical and abstract analysis But feminist praxis must always be informed by theory and theory by praixs In this book we work toward change by examining the position of various groups of refugee women in history and theory cross culturally and across disciplines and professions Social Development Issues ,1994 Canadiana ,1991-12 The Black Book of Canadian Foreign Policy Yves Engler,2009 This book could change how you see Canada Most of us believe this country s primary role has been as peacekeeper or honest broker in difficult to solve disputes But contrary to the mythology of Canada as a force for good in the world The Black Book of Canadian Foreign Policy sheds light on many dark corners from troops that joined the British in Sudan in 1885 to gunboat diplomacy in the Caribbean and aspirations of Central American empire to participation in the U N mission that killed Patrice Lumumba in the Congo to important support for apartheid South Africa Zionism and the U S war in Vietnam to helping overthrow Salvador Allende and supporting the Pinochet dictatorship in Chile to Haiti Iraq and Afghanistan today We bear responsibility for what governments do in the world primarily our own but secondarily those we can influence our allies in particular Yves Engler s penetrating inquiry yields a rich trove of valuable evidence about Canada s role in the world and poses a challenge for citizens who are willing to take their fundamental responsibilities seriously GoogleBooks Canadian and International Education ,1984 Canadian Books in Print ,2001 The Social Dimensions of Desertification Yvette D.
