A Conformable Wife Alice Chetwynd Ley,1981-07-01 Love, Hate, and the Law in Tudor England L. R. Poos,2022 Love Hate and the Law in Tudor England reconstructs the life of Ralph Rishton a member of the sixteenth century Lancashire gentry who was a child bridegroom and a serial wife discarder who bribed church officials to obtain a forged annulment defrauded a kinsman out of his inheritance and adroitly manipulated his own and other people s land The dozens of lawsuits in which the Rishtons were involved in many different courts elucidate one family s engagement with law in Tudor England how they used and misused law how it shaped their perceptions of rights and mutual obligations and how it framed litigants and witnesses language Drawing upon trial and estate records the core of this study is the central narrative of Ralph Rishton s three wives of litigiousness and violence marriage and property and the pursuit of equitable resolutions to disputes along with countless smaller narratives that vividly capture a culture in its time and place Alongside that central narrative L R Poos uses the Rishton stories as a starting point to analyse child marriage the construction of memory and the development of local historical identity through antiquarians and the Victorian and Edwardian local press demonstrating how from the time of the Rishtons into the twentieth century historical narratives were continually reshaped and repurposed

Harriet Disguised Catherine Dove,2022-04-04 Harriet and Sebastian Wynter are the children of a pair of archeologist explorers who traveled throughout the Mediterranean Their childhood was filled with adventure education and even occasional danger and they grew up to be brave and resourceful With their parents deaths however they are raised to adulthood by their beloved aunt in London To please their aunt they try to fit in with London society but their love for adventure is always just beneath the surface ready to launch them into trouble Harriet Wynter is struggling to be a proper lady She is successful but she pays for it with frustration at her lack of freedom When her brother goes off with some unknown stranger who claims to have a trunk that belonged to their late parents she is irritated because he won t take her with him But when he fails to return she determines to rescue him disguises herself as a boy and sets off on the stage to follow his trail Her resourcefulness will be tested as she faces kidnappers smugglers social ruin and most of all love In a convivial evening with his best friends Lord Ashurst drowns his sorrows with too much drink and passes out His friends play a trick on him and set him peacefully snoozing on the next stage south To his confusion he ends up on a country road without valet or horse or even a change of clothes along with a young boy apparently running away from school It doesn t take him long to discover the boy is actually a young lady but he s captured by her courage and decides to help her find her brother Harriet leads him on his first real adventure
