Conors Way:

Warnings Michael Smith, Mike Smith, 2010 From the heart of tornado alley Smith takes us into the eye of America's most devastating storms and behind the scenes of some of the world's most renowned scientific institutions to uncover the relationship between mankind and the weather

First Evan Thomas, 2020-05-05 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER The intimate inspiring and authoritative biography of Sandra Day O'Connor America's first female Supreme Court justice drawing on exclusive interviews and first time access to Justice O'Connor's archives as seen on PBS's American Experience She's a hero for our time and this is the biography for our time Walter Isaacson Finalist for the Los Angeles Times Book Prize Named One of the Best Books of the Year by NPR and The Washington Post She was born in 1930 in El Paso and grew up on a cattle ranch in Arizona At a time when women were expected to be homemakers she set her sights on Stanford University When she graduated near the top of her law school class in 1952 no firm would even interview her But Sandra Day O'Connor's story is that of a woman who repeatedly shattered glass ceilings doing so with a blend of grace wisdom humor understatement and cowgirl toughness She became the first ever female majority leader of a state senate As a judge on the Arizona Court of Appeals she stood up to corrupt lawyers and humanized the law When she arrived at the United States Supreme Court appointed by President Ronald Reagan in 1981 she began a quarter century tenure on the Court hearing cases that ultimately shaped American law Diagnosed with cancer at fifty eight and caring for a husband with Alzheimer's O'Connor endured every difficulty with grit and poise Women and men who want to be leaders and be first in their own lives who want to learn when to walk away and when to stand their ground will be inspired by O'Connor's example This is a remarkably vivid and personal portrait of a woman who loved her family who believed in serving her country and who when she became the most powerful woman in America built a bridge forward for all women Praise for First Cinematic poignant illuminating and eminently readable First gives us a real sense of Sandra Day O'Connor the human being Thomas gives O'Connor the credit she deserves The Washington Post A fascinating and revelatory biography a richly detailed picture of O'Connor's personal and professional life Evan Thomas's book is not just a biography of a remarkable woman but an elegy for a worldview that in law as well as politics has disappeared from the nation's main stages The New York Times Book Review

Profits and Sustainability Geoffrey Jones, 2018-01-26 Are profits and sustainability compatible This book brings unique perspectives to this key debate by exploring the history of green entrepreneurship since the nineteenth century and its spread globally in industries including renewable energy organic food natural beauty ecotourism recycling architecture and finance The book uses the lens of the extraordinary and often eccentric men and women who defied convention and imagined that business could help save the planet rather than consume it The social and religious beliefs that drove many of these individuals are explored as the book looks at how they overcame huge obstacles to execute their strategies The green entrepreneurs seen here are shown to have created new markets and industries and driven innovations in sustainable practices even at times when most consumers and governments marginalized the entire subject The struggles of early pioneers appear to have been rewarded by the growth of environmental awareness among consumers business leaders and others in recent years but the Earth s environmental health continues to deteriorate If profits and sustainability have proved challenging to reconcile the book argues that one reason was how they were both defined Against the Flow Richard S. Ward,2023-10-26 The infamous Arizona Territory was a place to be avoided like the plague Like Go Noi Island it was a free fire zone that had seen lots of action Yet right now everything was deadly quiet The usually melodic birds were muted Not a breath of wind rustled the trees The powdery red dirt under the Leathernecks dusty boots swirled in mini explosions The Marines knew Charlie the enemy was out there but the platoon didn t realize they had walked into the kill zone The silence was ruptured as explosions from heavy automatic weapons grenades and mortar fire rained upon the Marines Corpsman up The two words shouted on the battlefield sent a shockwave of adrenalin and activity through the jungle as Doc Canuck Connors sprang into action His role was to assist those wounded in the fighting against the North Vietnamese Army in this life or death struggle until a winner emerged But by the time the jungle was silent again pairs of dusty boots once moving forward were forever still sticking out from under dirty blood stained poncho covers Against the Flow A Canuck in Vietnam centres on the story of David Connors a Canadian who willingly served with the Marines as a Navy Hospital Corpsman in May 1969 teaming up with thousands of men in country during the Vietnam War Inspired by the author s own experiences Richard Ward s fictionalized account brings to life the individuals whose military histories need to be recognized and their stories told With sharp details and historical accuracy Ward takes readers to An Hi Combat Base and the battlegrounds beyond But at the heart of Ward s account are his intimate portrayals of the men s camaraderie and antics along with the physical and emotional struggles they endure as they lose their comrades in arms leading them to question whether their personal sacrifices are heroic or futile as the months march on Cupid Scores a Touchdown Erastus Osgood,1927 Fire & Rain Jerome Greer Chandler,1986 The American Legion Monthly American Legion,1927 The Trow City Directory Co.'s, Formerly Wilson's, Copartnership and Corporation Directory of New York City ,1889 Report of State Officers, Board and Committees to the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina South Carolina.
