Retinger, 1941 Conrad and His Contemporaries Józef Hieronim Retinger, 1941 Joseph Conrad and the Arts of his Time Robert Hampson, 2026-01-31 This volume is the product of new research on Conrad's engagement with the arts during his lifetime Beginning with nineteenth century Polish landscape painting and Polish theatre the essays move through music and the performing arts during Conrad's time in Marseilles the opera Conrad encountered in Australia and Conrad's later life knowledge of recent and contemporary classical music Subsequent essays demonstrate his familiarity with contemporary visual art particularly through his friendships with various artists in London his interest in dance and his active involvement in contemporary theatre and screen writing The volume concludes with a discussion of Conrad's art as a novelist and playwright his theatrical imagination in relation to developments in theatre theory of the time Four Contemporary Novelists Wilbur Lucius Cross, 1930 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Joseph Conrad: Conrad's Polish heritage; Memories and impressions; Contemporary and early responses Keith Carabine, 1992 Joseph Conrad's Critical Reception John G. Peters, 2013-04-29 Throughout the twentieth and twenty first centuries Joseph Conrad's novels and short stories have consistently figured into and helped to define the dominant trends in literary criticism This book is the first to provide a thorough yet accessible overview of Conrad scholarship and criticism spanning the entire history of Conrad studies from the 1895 publication of his first book Almayer's Folly to the present While tracing the general evolution of the commentary surrounding Conrad's work John G Peters's careful analysis also evaluates Conrad's impact on critical trends such as the belles lettres tradition the New Criticism psychoanalysis

structuralist and post structuralist criticism narratology postcolonial studies gender and women s studies and ecocriticism
The breadth and scope of Peters s study make this text an essential resource for Conrad scholars and students of English literature and literary criticism Conrad's Narrative Voice Werner Senn,2017-01-09 Werner Senn s Conrad s Narrative Voice draws on the methodology of linguistic stylistics and the analysis of narrative discourse to discuss Joseph Conrad s perception of the role and the limitations of language Tracing recurrent linguistic patterns allows Senn to demonstrate that Conrad s view of the radical indeterminacy of the world is conveyed on the most basic levels of the author s often criticised verbal style but permeates his work at all levels of the narrative Detailed stylistic analysis also reveals the importance to Conrad of the spoken word of oral communication Senn argues that the narrators compulsive efforts to make their readers see and understand reflect Conrad s ethics of human solidarity in a world he depicts as hostile enigmatic and often senseless
