Conrad on Film Gene M. Moore, 1997-11-27 This book offers the first comprehensive international survey of more than eighty films and videos based on the life and work of Joseph Conrad Essays by leading film and literary scholars examine the films both in the context of film history and technology and in terms of the theoretical and practical problems facing directors including Alfred Hitchcock Orson Welles Francis Ford Coppola and Andrzej Wajda who have attempted to put Conrad on film Conrad was the first major English author to adapt his work for the screen and the story of his unpublished film play is told in an important chapter The challenges of finding visual analogues for Conrad s narrative irony and filmic equivalents for his narrators are also examined The volume is well illustrated and includes a detailed filmography and film bibliography making it a landmark study of Conrad films and film adaptations in general

Conrad and Cinema Gene D. Phillips, 1995 The purpose of this book is to show how the wedding of fiction and film works out concretely in a book that focuses on the screen versions of the work of a single novelist Joseph Conrad Conrad is not only one of the greatest writers of this century but has the distinction of having all of his major works committed to film including Lord Jim and Heart of Darkness as Apocalypse Now Here is an in depth study of the films of Conrad s fiction solidly based on both literary and cinematic theory The author conducted interviews with several of the notable directors who made Conrad films including Sir Alfred Hitchcock and Francis Coppola this interview material is a highlight of the book

Joseph Conrad--comparative Essays Adam Gillon, 1994 This collection of essays continues Adam Gillon s comparatist approach to Joseph Conrad which he exhibited in three previous books The Eternal Solitary A Study of Joseph Conrad 1960 and 1964 Conrad and Shakespeare and Other Essays 1976 and Joseph Conrad Tawyne English Authors Series 1982 In the present collection Gillon extends his perspectives by examining the affinities between Conrad s descriptive art and painting and film Gillon presents a variety of new views and insights as he traces the connections between Conrad and such writers as Henry James and Vladimir Nabokov and compares Conradian characters Prince Roman and Peer Ivanovitch Gillon s Polish background looms large in this collection His mastery of the Polish language is apparent in the discussion of two Polish novels about Conrad s early life and in his translation of excerpts from these novels The first and last chapters offer moving glimpses of Gillon s own Polish footprints his initiation into Conrad lore and the visit to his native land after a long absence The intimacy and wry humor of these recollections are evident also in his essay about adapting Conrad to film which is illustrated with excerpts from his scripts Under Western Eyes and Dark Country his screenplay inspired by Heart of Darkness and Conradian themes A native of Poland Adam Gillon is professor emeritus of English and comparative literature at the State University of New York New Paltz He has lectured at universities in Canada Israel and Europe His numerous publications include critical studies of Conrad fiction poetry translations articles and reviews He has written award winning plays for screen stage and radio He wrote directed and produced a feature film The Bet Gillon is president of the Joseph Conrad Society of America and founder and senior editor of its newsletter Joseph
