Conscience And Love In Making Judicial Decisions:

Conscience and Love in Making Judicial Decisions Alexander Nikolaevich Shytov,2013-03-14 THE CONSCIENCE OF JUDGES AND APPLICATION OF LEGAL RULES The book is devoted to the problem of the influence of moral judgements on the result of judicial decision making in the process of application of the established positive law It is the conscience of judges that takes the central place in the research Conscience is understood in the meaning developed in the theory of Thomas Aquinas as the complex capacity of the human being to make moral judgements which represent acts of reason on the question of what is right or wrong in a particular situation The reason why we need a theory of conscience in making judicial decisions lies in the nature of the positive law itself On the one hand there is an intrinsic conflict between the law as the body of rigid rules and the law as an living experience of those who are involved in social relationships This conflict particularly finds its expression in the collision of strict justice and equity The idea of equity does not reject the importance of rules in legal life What is rejected is an idolatrous attitude to the rules when the uniqueness of a human being his well being and happiness are disregarded and sacrificed in order to fulfil the observance of the rules The rules themselves are neither good or bad What makes them good or bad is their application Corpus Juris of Islamic International Criminal Justice

Farhad Malekian,2018-09-30 This pioneering scholarly oeuvre evaluates the major comparative philosophy of Islamic international criminal justice It represents an in depth analysis of the necessities of creating an Islamic international criminal court its possible jurisdiction proceedings judgments and sanctions It implies a court functioning under the legal personality of the International Criminal Court with comparative international criminal lawyers with basic knowledge of Shariah contributing to the prevention of crimes and impunity at an international level The morality and philosophy of Islamic justice are highly relevant with reference to the atrocities committed explicitly or implicitly under the pretext of Islamic rules by superiors groups and governments The volume focuses on substantive criminal law and three methods of the criminal procedure namely the inquisitorial adversarial and acquisitorial The first two constitute the corpus juris of civil and common law systems The third term presents a hybrid of the first two methods The intention is to enhance the scope of each method of the criminal procedure comprehensively The volume examines their variations and effects on a shared system of international criminal justice The inherence of comparable norms in the foundation of Islamic and international criminal law affirms their efficiency in the implementation of the essence of the complementarity principle This book will appeal to readers who are interested in comparative criminal law international criminal justice and Shariah criminal law It is recommended for course literature Law and Human Behavior ,2002 Comptes Rendus Philosophiques ,2003
