The Development of Management Consultancy, with Special Reference to Latin America United Nations Industrial Development Organization,1973 Strategies for Information Technology Governance Wim Van Grembergen,2004

Annotation In many organizations information technology IT has become crucial in the support sustainability and growth of the business This pervasive use of technology has created a critical dependency on IT that calls for a specific focus on IT governance IT governance consists of the leadership and organizational structures processes and relational mechanisms that ensure that the organization's IT sustains and extends the organization's strategy and objectives Strategies for Information Technology Governance records and interprets some important existing theories and practices in IT governance and contributes to the understanding of them The Consulting Profession in Developing Countries Syed S. Kirmani,Warren C. Baum,1992 The authors concluded that during the past two decades the number of domestic consulting firms in developing countries has increased phenomenally However the quality of their performance has not kept pace with the growth in numbers The policies and practices of government internal weaknesses in staffing and management and the lack of a supportive environment have prevented domestic consulting firms from effectively exercising the key role that they should in planning designing and implementing their countries investment programs The authors also point out that favorable opportunities for growth of the consulting profession exist but a number of constraints will have to be overcome for those to be realized The profession generally suffers from several structural weaknesses It is characterized by a small number of large firms mostly public enterprises which dominate the business and at the other end of the scale a very large number of small or medium size private firms often in a precarious position The recommended strategy for strengthening the domestic consulting is addressed to both the developing countries and the World Bank and other donors
