Foundations for Social Change Daniel Faber, Deborah McCarthy Auriffeille, 2005-09-01 This multi disciplinary collection blends broad overviews and case studies as well as different theoretical perspectives in a critique of the relationship between United States philanthropic foundations and movements for social change Scholars and practitioners examine how these foundations support and or thwart popular social movements and address how philanthropic institutions can be more accountable and democratic in a sophisticated provocative and accessible manner Foundations for Social Change brings together the leading voices on philanthropy and social movements into a single collection and its interdisciplinary approach will appeal to scholars students foundation officials non profit advocates and social movement activists

Foundations and Public Policy Joan Roelofs, 2012-02-01 In this pathbreaking study of foundation influence author Joan Roelofs produces a comprehensive picture of philanthropy s critical role in society She shows how a vast number of policy innovations have arisen from the most important foundations lessening the destructive impact of global marketization Conversely groups and movements that might challenge the status quo are nudged into line with grants and technical assistance and foundations also have considerable power to shape such things as public opinion higher education and elite ideology The cumulative effect is that foundations despite their progressive goals have a depoliticizing effect one that preserves the hegemony of neoliberal institutions

Contested, Violated but Persistent Charlotte Heyl, Mariana Llanos, 2022-12-26 Presidential term limits have been a crucial institutional feature of the third wave of democratization They are meant to safeguard democracy by promoting alternation in office and preventing the personalization of power However since the 1990s term limits have been subject to frequent contestation by incumbents Such contestation process has often been considered a sign of autocratization particularly when it involves the weakening of other constitutional constraints such as courts and legislatures Term limit contestations have attracted the attention of scholars working with a global perspective as well as with a regional or country specific one too Latin America and sub Saharan Africa are focal points of these trends despite their different histories of presidentialism and diverging types of term limit rules This book generates new empirical and theoretical insights by bringing together the scholarship on Latin America and sub Saharan Africa providing context bound intraregional research as well as long term perspectives for the study of term limit change The chapters advance novel findings on institutionalization the power of precedence incumbent centred strategies and approaches to protect presidential term limits This volume will be of great use to students and researchers interested in Latin American and African studies comparative politics as well as political leadership The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Democratization
