Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles Development of Accounting and Auditing Systems in China Xu-Dong Ji,2017-10-05 This title was first published in 2001 In 1979 China opened the door to the West and implemented a series of economic reforms that led the accounting system to depart from the Soviet model This book investigates the development of Chinese accounting in a broad social economic and cultural environment and analyzes the environmental influences on the development of accounting in China Including the latest accounting systems which have to date received little scholarly attention this cutting edge analysis makes a worthy addition to a growing area of research

New Theories in Growth and Development Frank Hahn,Fabrizio Coricelli,Massimo Di Matteo,2016-01-06 This collection offers a stimulating and insightful overview of the main issues affecting long term economic growth The novelty of this book is that it brings together two strands of economic literature growth and development theories The communication between different approaches is crucial as it is increasingly understood that growth hinges upon institutional and policy aspects that are generally neglected in the stylized models of growth but highly relevant for developing countries Government policies and institution design become central to the explanation of divergent growth paths Resource Allocation in Agricultural Research Walter L. Fishel,1971 Problems and issues Research and welfare Investments in research Decision making in practice Decision making experiments Books in Series, 1876-1949 R.R. Bowker Company,1982 Project planning and income distribution F.L.C.H. Helmers,2012-12-06 In the past few years several manuals dealing with project planning for the developing countries have been published One may therefore ask why another study on this subject has been written The answer is that the manuals in my opinion do not deal adequately with the income distribution aspects of projects This study was written to demonstrate how traditional project planning criteria can be expanded to include income distribution considerations Part I of the study Chapters I through 6 discusses conventional project planning criteria Chapter I serves as an introduction by reviewing some of the broader principles of the analysis Chapters 2 and 3 examine in detail the valuation of benefits and costs paying particular attention to the problems that arise in making such valuations in developing countries While Chapter 4 is concerned with the rules to be followed for maximizing the net benefits of a single project Chapter 5 reviews the techniques for maximizing the net benefits of a series of projects Chapter 6 deals with a number of different topics ranging from the practical problems posed by linkages and externalities to an examination of the usefulness of international lending agencies and problems related to divergencies from situations of internal and external balance Part II is concerned with income distribution and begins in Chapter 7 with a review of the concept of a social welfare function
